

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
E A S T B A Y

Announcement

Office of Academic Affairs

Marc G. Neithercutt, Professor Emeritus of the Department of Criminal Justice Administration, Passed Away December 16, 2015

Marc G. Neithercutt, Professor Emeritus of the Department of Criminal Justice Administration, passed away December 16, 2015. He began his career at CSU, Hayward (East Bay) in 1977 and retired in 2003. He obtained his B.A. in 1961 from Baylor University. He received the M.Crim. in 1964 and the D.Crim. in 1968 from the University of California, Berkeley.

The family has provided the following:

It is with great sorrow that I bring you news of the passing of one of the greatest minds in the Criminal Justice profession, and a founding Father of the CSU Hayward Criminal Justice Program. Dr. Marc Neithercutt passed on 12-16-2015 with his family at his side from complications due to cancer. A memorial service will be held in his honor on 12-27-2015 at the Smith Funeral Home (www.smith-funerals.com) located at 116 D Street, in Davis, California, 95616 from 2 to 4 PM. Law Enforcement graduates of Dr. Neithercutt's classes are invited to wear class A uniforms. Honor Guard members wishing to assist please contact Sgt. John Kovach (NPD) at 510-578-4236. For additional information about the service please contact Dr. Neithercutt's son, and 1995 CSUEB Alumnus:

Officer Jeff Neithercutt
Newark Police Department
37101 Newark Blvd.
Newark, CA. 94560
510-578-4949

© Copyright California State University, East Bay

www.csueastbay.edu/OAA