FALL 2015

“Discovering and Honoring What Inspires You to Make a Difference”

Featuring Jakada Imani — Director, Ignite Institute @ PSR

Jakada Imani formerly served as the Executive Director of the Ella Baker Center for Human Rights. He launched the Ella Baker Center’s program to reduce the U.S. incarceration rate by 50 percent in ten years. Jakada describes his work this way: “My calling is to … help people and social movements achieve personal and social transformation.”

Tuesday, October 20 • Noon - 1:30 p.m.
University Union, Room 311

WINTER 2016

“On the Run: Fugitive Life in an American City”

Featuring Alice Goffman — Guest Author and Assistant Professor of Sociology at the University of Wisconsin, Madison

In “On the Run: Fugitive Life in an American City,” sociologist Alice Goffman examines the largely hidden world of police beatings, court fees, sentencing hearings, and low level warrants that pervade daily life for young people in one poor African American neighborhood in Philadelphia.

Thursday, February 25
2 - 3:30 p.m. (student focused); 5 - 6:30 p.m. (open to the public)
University Theatre

SPRING 2016 • NEW DATE & TIME

“Courage, Candor, & Curiosity: Using Business as a Force for Good to Save the Earth”

Featuring Andy Keller — President and Inventor, ChicoBag Company

Andy Keller has a passion for developing simple product solutions to large environmental issues. Keller invented the first ChicoBag brand reusable bag in 2004 as a response to an overwhelming encounter with loose plastic bags at a landfill. Keller’s mission to help humanity bag the single-use habit has contributed to millions of people switching to reusable bags.

Monday, April 25 • 2 - 4 p.m.
University Union, Room 311

Individuals that require accommodations for this event please contact Accessibility Services.
Email: as@csueastbay.edu • phone: 510.885.3868
For further details, please visit: csueastbay.edu/diversity