GENERAL INFORMATION

- For advertising management positions, courses should include marketing, consumer behavior and market research.
- Promoting experienced staff fills most advertising positions. Be willing to start in an entry-level position in order to get your foot in the door.
- Be willing to relocate to larger markets such as New York, Chicago or Los Angeles for more job opportunities.
- Obtain experience through a summer job, part-time job or internship.
- Save work along the course of your studies and employment to be used for a portfolio. It is better to have too much to choose from instead of too little.
- You may need additional areas of expertise for newspaper or television, such as printing and photography.
- Overall, individuals in the advertising area need to be excellent communicators, good listeners, team players, professional, hard working, creative, flexible and enthusiastic.
