Intensive English Program

English for Academic and Professional Purposes

in the San Francisco Bay Area

California State University, East Bay
The Beautiful San Francisco Bay Area
The San Francisco Bay Area is a scenic, cultural, social, and recreational center with a mild climate year-round. The Bay Area offers all the amenities of a major metropolitan setting. Cal State East Bay’s Hayward campus is just 30 to 40 minutes away from San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, San Jose, and Silicon Valley. The hilltop campus overlooks the San Francisco Bay and is surrounded by residential neighborhoods, with the comfort and security of a family community.

Intensive English Program Overview
The Intensive English Program teaches a wide variety of English-language skills including general English and English for academic preparation. The course curriculum offers six levels of instruction including beginner, intermediate, and advanced. Program instructors have Master’s degrees in teaching and have first-hand experience working with international English learners.

What students say about ALP's Intensive English Program

“There are great teachers in ALP--they are friendly and they helped me to adapt to an American university. ALP also offers many activities to help students engage in American society. I have made a lot of friends from all over the world and have learned so much. Now I am enrolled as an undergraduate at CSUEB. I highly recommend the Intensive English Program if you want to learn a lot and meet new friends. Thank you ALP!”

Abdulrahman Alhusaini, Kuwait

“The experience at ALP is one of the most meaningful things in my life. I really appreciate the method of education, because it makes me open my mind to a new way of thinking. Outside of class, the various activities available for students of ALP and CSUEB made my leisure time colorful. The wonderful Fun Trips and Bay Area experience group activities also exposed me to more information about California. I will treasure my time at ALP and regard it as a starting point for my future.”

Huan Chen, China

“I made one of the best decisions of my life when I entered the California State University English program [ALP] because I have been able to improve my English skills and prepare to finish my Finance degree. In these two months in ALP classes and activities, I have met wonderful people, both students and teachers, from many parts of the world who have shown me that it is possible to achieve one of my great dreams, to finish my career in Finance. I am grateful to ALP for all their help and for being part of this great dream.”

Tatiana Knuth, Colombia

Housing & Campus Life

ALP Students live at the Cal State East Bay on-campus apartments and suites. University Village is just a short walk from classes. These spacious, fully-furnished apartments feature a kitchenette with refrigerator and microwave along with community computer labs and study, exercise, laundry, and recreation spaces. ALP Students also have full access to the University library, gym and a variety of dining options on campus. Free shuttle buses run from campus to nearby BART train stations which offer access to the entire Bay Area.
