VI. NEW BUSINESS ITEMS:

a. DISCUSSION ITEM - ASI board and Senate Applicant interviews
M. Lynch gives the committee more information on how the interview process went and J. Carroll confirms that they still have 5 applicant interviews left therefore they won’t be able to do the final discussion for the candidates. J. Carroll confirms that all of the interviews will be done by the end of the day on Monday and proceeds to go over the rubric which explains the scoring of the applicant. The committee then discusses how they will bring the recommended candidates to the Board in order for the current Board to make a final decision. E. Pinlac states that M. Castillo as well as himself will be there in order to alleviate any bias. A. Solanki concludes by stating that they will continue this discussion at the next meeting because they still have a few remaining candidates.

b. DISCUSSION ITEM - Reviewing 2018 ASI Elections (Positives and Negatives)
M. Lynch states that the grievances were definitely not that bad and E. Pinlac acknowledges that the actually cycle was very smooth because there was no pettiness against one another. E. Pinlac also thinks that having the committee so early was helpful as well. Although the process was a lot smoother this year J. Carroll believes that they can definitely improve on publicity.
The committee also speaks on ways they can improve their marketing in order to get students more involved. J. Carroll states that they did well with putting together position descriptions for the committee last year. However, they need to work on having a clearer outline of the elections timeline.
