Spring 2019

Instructor’s Printed Name

Instructor’s Signature and Date

INSTRUCTOR PERMISSION IS NOT A GUARANTEE OF ENROLLMENT INTO A COURSE. PERMISSION NUMBERS ONLY ALLOW STUDENTS TO ENROLL INTO AN OPEN COURSE.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This form and procedure is only valid for the College of Business & Economics (CBE) undergraduate courses offered through the main University.
For non-CBE courses, please contact their respective departments for more information.

1. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that the course information and instructor are correct prior to submission.
2. Permission numbers will never increase the size of a class. Once a permission number is used, it is no longer valid.
3. Prerequisites for courses will be strictly enforced, regardless of instructor permission.
4. Permission numbers are course and section specific.
5. Open classes are designated by a green circle “○” on MyCSUEB.
6. Full or closed classes are designated by a blue square “□” on MyCSUEB.
7. MyCSUEB shows real-time enrollment data and it is the student’s responsibility to monitor space availability.
8. If you lose your unused permission number(s) please contact the CBE Office of Undergraduate Advising.
9. Students who receive the wrong number due to providing an incorrect course and/or section number will be required to obtain instructor consent again before a new number is issued.
