

Dina Flanagan

Field Supervisor

Work History

California State University East Bay, 2016 – present
Student Teacher and Intern Supervisor

San Carlos School District, 1996 – 2016

White Oaks School – Classroom Teacher grades K and 4

District Office – BTSA Coordinator grades K-8

Heather School – Classroom Teacher grades 1, 1-2 multi-age, 2, & 4

Math Coach, BASRC (Bay Area School Reform Collaborative) Coordinator

Early Literacy Intervention Teacher

California State University, Diversity Issues Project, 1994 – 1995

Alameda Unified School District, 1985-1991

Woodstock Elementary School – Classroom Teacher grades 1 and 4

Representative Experience

TeachingWorks, University of Michigan Video Exemplars Project

Project Based Learning training with Buck Institute

BaySci NGSS Champions Academy participant

Silicon Valley Math Initiative professional Development Participant

MARS (Math Assessment Resource Service) Lead scorer and scoring trainer

Healthy Cities Tutoring - Math tutorial provider for tutors

Belmont-Redwood Shores School District Professional Learning Day

Presenter - Implementing The Six Traits of Writing

Heather School – Family Math Night Coordinator

CMSESMC presenter Math and Science Conference 2004 & 2005, Subtraction Strategies for the Primary Grades, Using Strategies to Learn Basic Facts

Asilomar Mathematics Conference Presenter 2003, 2004, & 2005 Mental Math Activities to Build Addition and Subtraction, Subtraction Strategies for the Primary Grades, Thinking Around Tens

San Carlos School District Staff Development Presenter – The Six Traits of Writing

Session Chair, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE)
Annual Conference, 1996

Paper Presentation, Multicultural Knowledge and Attitudes of Pre Service Teachers.
AACTE Annual Conference, 1996

Education

California State University, Fullerton

Master of Science, Curriculum & Instruction, Diversity Emphasis May, 1995

Outstanding Graduate Student Award 1995

Thesis: Multicultural Attitudes and Knowledge of Pre-Service Teachers

University of California, Berkeley

Multiple Subject Teaching Credential May 1986

University of California, Los Angeles

Bachelor of Arts, Psychology

June, 1985

Dean's Honor List