

Curriculum Vitae

Jeremy McCullough

Field Supervision

Full-time employment: New Haven Unified School District, 1973-2010

Retirement: June, 2010

Part-time employment: New Haven Unified School District, 2010-2014

Teaching experience:

Resource Specialist, grades 5-8, 1973-1977

Teacher, grade 6, all core subjects 1977-1978

Teacher, all core subjects and remedial reading, grade 6, 1978-1979

Teacher, grade 6, Math, Science, remedial reading, 1979-81

Teacher, Math, Science, Journalism, grades 7-8, 1981-3

Teacher, Math, Social Science, grades 7-8, 1983-4

Teacher, History, grades 9 and 11, 1984-5

Teacher, Psychology, grades 10-12, 1985-2010

Member and sometime chair, middle school faculty/administration leadership team, 1974-1984

Member, steering committee, high school restructuring, 1992-1999

Instructor, New Haven/CSUEB SSPP new teacher program, 1999-2000

Curriculum development: created Lifeskills health/psychology course, 1988-9

Graduation, Encina High School, Sacramento, 1966

B.A. University of the Pacific, 1970, English

M.A. San Francisco State, 1972, English

Standard Secondary teaching credential, Cal State Hayward, 1973, English

Temporary authorizations: Special Education, Math, Administration

Single Subject credentials: Life Science, Social Science

Award: Teacher of the Year, House 1, Logan High School, 1996

Instructional strengths: classroom management, lesson development, pacing, grouping strategies, student motivation, evaluation of student work

Other strengths: communication skills, school wide change process, meeting facilitation, parent relations