

Nancy G. Ogden

Education:

Master of Arts in Curriculum and Teacher Education, Stanford University. June 2004

Single Subject Teaching Credential in Social Studies, San Francisco State University. May 2000.

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, University of California, Davis. June 1996

Teaching Experience:

Social Studies Teacher, Hayward High School, Hayward Unified School District, Hayward, CA. 2000-2003; 2004-present

- American Government and Economics. Teach twelfth grade required course in both Government and Economics. Plan and implement creative and thoughtful lessons that connect theoretical material with current events and student lives.
- Advanced Placement United States History. Taught college-level course in United States History which extensively utilizes primary source material, trains students to write deeply analytical historical essays and prepares students for an exhaustive examination in May.

Instructional Coach (p/t), Hayward High

2017-present

- Develop, Coordinate, and Facilitate both district-wide and school-wide professional learning opportunities for teachers
- Lead Cross-Discipline Inquiry based Professional Learning Community
- Provide curriculum and instructional support for individual teachers

Words That Made America Program, Alameda County Office of Education Hayward, CA. 2005-2010

- Lesson Study Facilitator/Mentor-Leader. Facilitated three teams of high school teachers who investigated history, teaching, and student learning through the lesson study process.
- Teacher Leadership Cadre. Worked with 15-20 teachers from local districts to rigorously study United States history, develop meaningful curriculum using primary sources and participate in lesson study observations.

Instructor, Cal State East Bay, Hayward, CA.

2008-present

- Instructional Methods in Social Studies Courses I, II, III, IV. Teach methods and assessment techniques to pre-service History/Social Studies teachers.

Related Professional Experience:

Community Program Director Mt. Diablo Family YMCA, Pleasant Hill, CA. 1996-1999

- Developed, monitored and strengthened YMCA community programs, including Youth Sports Leagues, Youth and Government Program, Summer Day, Resident and Caravan Camps, Middle School Drama Program and other family programs.
- Hired and supervised a diverse and dynamic staff team of professional and seasonal employees

Leadership Positions, Professional Awards and Publications

Author, "Thinking in the Classroom" Blog Series, KQED Education 2016

Co-author, "The Teacher's Toolkit" Course Design Guide. Paradigm Publishing. 2010

Department Co-Chair, Hayward High School Social Studies Department 2004-2008

Support Provider, Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment Program 2002-2008

Co-author, "Not a Peculiar Institution: Challenging Students' Assumptions about Slavery in US History"

The History Teacher. 2008

Presenter, CCSS & CCHE conferences 2007, 2010

James Madison Memorial Fellowship for Graduate Study 2002