

Lola A. Taylor

Field Supervisor

Lecturer

Education

2003-2008 Ed.D. Educational Leadership and Management, Alliant International University.

1995-1997 MA. Educational Leadership, Saint Mary's College, Honors.

1984-1989 BA. Liberal Studies (Option, Biological Science), California East Bay, California State University.

Credentials

1996- 1997 Administrative Credential (Preliminary), Saint Mary's College.

1989-1990 Teaching Credentials, Multiple Subject (authorization, Life Sciences) National University.

Certificates

1988 CBEST

1994 CLADD

Professional Experience

2014-current, Field Supervisor, California State University, East Bay, Hayward, California

2009-2014 Adjunct Professor School of Teacher Graduate Education, Kaplan Online University (still employed)

Taught teacher graduate courses for the Masters of Education Program (Philosophy, Science Methods, Secondary Classroom Management and a number of other educational courses.

2013-2014 Consultant work, judged science fair projects for the Science Fair; Worked with teachers and substituted grades K,4,5,6 at various elementary schools in the WCCUSD.

2011, 2012,2013 Adjunct Professor, Alliant International University

Taught College course, Environmental Science and Teacher intern science methods Courses.

2000-2003 Adjunct Professor, Teacher Science Education, CSUEB

1991-2009 Educator for the West Contra Costa Unified School District

2006 – 2008 Project Assistant, Central Office, Designed Curriculum (helped develop School Site Plans

For Principals, (Instructional Design) and collaborated with other administrators in the department of the central office.

Taught K-6, Grades 6-8 Science, middle school,

Literacy Coach K-6, Summer School Principal, elementary level. Retired in 2009

Professional Development:

2014 Attended the Day of The Book, met with publishers and received training how to publish articles and books. Pleasant Hill, California

Professional Contributions:

My local chapter (Theta Psi) of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, prepared activity boxes for very ill children in the local Hospital. Helped new teachers at school sites,

Contributed Presentations:

2018 California Kindergarten Conference, Autism Awareness

2007 The Impact on Teacher Identity as linked to the No Child Left Behind Mandates, Southwest Regional conference, Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International.

2006 The Spirit King: A Parent's Journey with Her Autistic Son, Saint Mary's College.

2005 Presentation of Spirit King to Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International.

Honors and Awards:

2007 Award for Recognition of Outstanding Service as a member of Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International, Area 3, Chapter, Theta Psi.

2005 Scholarship, Partners For Success, Alliant International University.

Honors and Awards (Continued)

2005 Scholarship, International level, Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International.

2004 Scholarship, California State level, Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International.

Published work:

The Spirit King: A parent's journey with her autistic son.

A Unit of Tolerance: A multicultural approach to curriculum in the classroom, 2005.

Teacher Stress: A global perspective, 2004.

References

Available by request