ACTIVE SHOOTER PREPAREDNESS WORKSHOPS

When and where are the workshops? Two sessions are confirmed:
Concord Campus: Tuesday, April 24, 2012 at 12-1pm in Oak Room

Hayward Campus: Thursday, May 3, 2012 at 12-1pm in University Union Multipurpose Room

What is the purpose of the workshop? The purpose of the session is to inform and to enhance personal safety on campus. Learn more information about how to respond in a crisis situation where there is an “active shooter”. Discuss ways to recognize early warning signs of an escalating situation among co-workers or students.

Who should attend? Open to all members of the CSUEB campus community

RSVP: For planning of materials and space, please confirm to: cpab@csueastbay.edu

Presenter: Sergeant Kevin Gonzales, University Police Department

If you have questions or request more information, contact Laty Johnson, at cpab@csueastbay.edu or call (510) 885-3032.

This activity is in partnership with the CSUEB Community Policing Advisory Board (CPAB).
