Through classroom learning and activities all around the city, the CSU East Bay Rio Summer 2016 program explored the most visited city in the southern hemisphere in the lead-up to the Olympics.

Please join Dr. Ivester and Rio 2016 students as they share their experiences from this summer in the Olympic City, and learn why the local residents referred to the Rio Olympics as the ‘Exclusion Games’.

Monday, October 24, 2-4 p.m.
New University Union
Multi-purpose Room B

SPONSORED BY:

- Center for Sport & Social Justice
- California State University East Bay
- The Office of Diversity