EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP DOCTORAL PROGRAM
Position Number: 10-11 DEL PTL-02

The CSUEB doctoral program, Educational Leadership for Social Justice, is compiling a pool of applicants for possible temporary teaching positions for one or more quarters of the 2010-2011 academic year (Winter 2011 through Spring 2011). Applications will be kept on file Winter Quarter 2011, through Spring Quarter 2011, or until hiring for the Spring Quarter is complete. Openings will be filled from the pool of applicants before the start of each quarter. Teaching assignments at CSU East Bay may include courses any CSUEB offering site including the Hayward and Concord campuses.

Minimum Degree Requirement: Qualified applicants must have an earned doctorate in Education Leadership or another relevant field, and experience teaching in graduate programs. Some positions require school, district, or agency administrative experience while others require applied research expertise.

Faculty teach courses, supervise onsite residencies, and advise students in various capacities. Course descriptions: http://csueastbay.edu/edd.

The ELSJ program seeks to provide school leaders an applied research curriculum with instructors who bring expertise as school, system, or agency leaders and who can support doctoral student research. The doctoral faculty and students are committed to challenging systematic inequities in schools and other educational settings.

Employment is contingent upon course enrollment and budget. California State University, East Bay is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, or disability. The University is committed to the principles of diversity in employment and to creating a stimulating learning environment for its diverse student body.

For consideration, please submit a letter of application; an academic application (http://www.csueastbay.edu/OAA/docs.html); a complete and current vita; and three letters of recommendation to the Doctoral Program Director. Please refer to the position number in your application.
