Procedure to Apply for Change of Status to F-1

When the USCIS receives an application for Change of Status to F-1, they need to verify the following items in order to approve an application:

- The applicant did not commit fraud when entering the U.S.
- The applicant is currently (at the time of submitting the application) in valid non-immigrant status.
- The applicant is eligible for F-1 status. In other words:
  - The student has been admitted properly to a program eligible to enroll F-1 students.
  - The student has provided sufficient financial documents to show that he/she will be able to complete the course of study for which he/she is admitted.
  - The person does not intend to immigrate to the U.S.

Please note the following additional restrictions for change of status to F-1:

- Since April 12, 2002, if you entered in B-1 or B-2 status, you are prohibited from beginning study until after you receive approval for F-1 status.
- F-2 dependents are prohibited from full-time study unless the study is at the elementary or secondary level.

When preparing your application, you need to carefully document your situation and demonstrate your eligibility for a change of status. You will need to write a letter to the USCIS to explain your situation (who you are, why you are currently in the U.S. and why you wish to change to F-1). In your letter, you should address the following issues:

1) You must show that you entered the U.S. lawfully – i.e., that if you came in the U.S. as a tourist (B-2), you came only to travel, not to study. If you intended to mislead US government officials about the purpose of your visit to the U.S., USCIS will deny your application for change of status.

2) You must demonstrate that you are currently in valid status and you must maintain your current status during the duration of the change of status – therefore, those holding H-1B or H-4 status need to demonstrate they the H-1B is still working at the company that sponsored the H-1B. If the applicant is holding F-2 status, then he or she needs to demonstrate that the F-1 student is in valid status.

3) Also address how this degree will help you in your future career, keeping in mind that if you have intention to immigrate to the U.S., the USCIS can deny your application.

NOTES OF CAUTION

Other applications to the USCIS: If you have (or someone has submitted on your behalf) a separate petition or application to the USCIS, you should consult an attorney before submitting an application for change of status. This is especially important for those in H-4 status whose spouse has an immigrant petition in progress. CIE cannot advise those who have separate applications or petitions pending for other immigration benefits.

Residency tuition and change of status: If you are currently eligible for resident tuition at CSU East Bay, and your application for change to F-1 is approved, you will no longer be eligible for resident tuition.

B-2 and F-2 Visa Holders- Please note that B-2 and F-2 visa holders wishing to change status through USCIS will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis due to the processing time and start date of the program.
