6. JUSTIFICATION FOR/PURPOSE OF the proposed new course: [Why does this course need to be added? Will this course be used in one of your existing majors, options, minors, or certificates? If so, which one and how? Will the major, option, minor, or certificate need to be revised as a result of the addition of this course?]

This will serve as a companion course for the Paraguay - Study Abroad course. It will serve to immerse students in the sociological examination of Paraguayan society prior to departure for studying abroad in Paraguay. It will fulfill elective requirements for the existing sociology major and minor. No revision of certificates necessary.

7. List of all Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) for this new course.

SLO 2: Students will demonstrate oral and written abilities to effectively communicate and engage in educated, open-minded discussions of diverse sociocultural beliefs, perspectives, and norms.

SLO 3: Students will possess knowledge of cultural differences and an understanding of how power, privilege, and culture produce social inequalities and stigmatization, and how structures of domination are effectively challenged.
8. RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS: (With the addition of this course, is there a need for additional student fees or other resources such as faculty, facilities, equipment, and/or library resources that will not be covered by the department budget.)

All signatories of this course proposal understand and recognize that the approval of a new course does not guarantee that it will be offered or guarantee the frequency of its offering. Course offerings are always subject to resource availability and the discretion of the dean.
