Student Exhibition Opens At University Art Gallery

By David Crum

A large turnout of students and their families, faculty and staff, celebrated the opening of Cal State Hayward's Annual Juried Student Exhibition at the University Art Gallery with a reception and an award ceremony May 12.

The exhibit will be open every day from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. through June 22. The show will also be open on Saturday, June 18, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There are currently 93 works of 135 students at the exhibit. "There was a good turnout and a lot of interest," said David Toda, professor and director of the art department. "We had to keep adding art to the exhibit."

The exhibit will feature work from most of the University Art Gallery's 19 art classes. The gallery has had a juried student exhibition every year since 1978.

"The gallery was open every day, and Friday and Sunday performances of 10 to 20 minutes. Each bill will feature four short plays, the XARC Festival, June 3-6.

The first bill will be performed Thursday, June 3, at 7 p.m. and Saturday, June 5, at 2 p.m.

The second bill will feature short plays on May 11, 13, 17, 18, and 20, from 7 to 8 p.m.

The final bill will feature short plays on May 20, 22, 24, and 25, from 7 to 8 p.m.

Tickets will be available at the door of the Performing Art Center. Call the CSUH Theatre Box Office, (510) 885-3261, for more information.

On Saturday, June 18, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., there will be a live performance at the exhibit. "There was a good turn out with lots of good pieces, and it was beautiful to be surrounded by so many good artists."

Fasha Bogom, assistant professor in communication studies at John F. Kennedy University in Berkeley, will provide two different programs of dance and spoken word performances by students from the XARC festival, June 3-6.

Laurie Williams, professor and director of the University Art Gallery, chose a different juror each year to maintain variety and fresh outlooks about art.

"I think this student exhibition provides more excitement than any other exhibit," said the faculty member, said Marie Royce, who has a photograph displayed in the exhibit. "Each year we have different juror each year to maintain variety and fresh outlooks about art."

By David Crum

"There were 93 works of art, a large turnout of students and their families, faculty and staff, celebrated the opening of Cal State Hayward's Annual Juried Student Exhibition at the University Art Gallery with a reception and an award ceremony May 12.

The exhibit will be open every day from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. through June 22. The show will also be open on Saturday, June 18, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There are currently 93 works of 135 students at the exhibit. "There was a good turnout and a lot of interest," said David Toda, professor and director of the art department. "We had to keep adding art to the exhibit."

The exhibit will feature work from most of the University Art Gallery's 19 art classes. The gallery has had a juried student exhibition every year since 1978.

"The gallery was open every day, and Friday and Sunday performances of 10 to 20 minutes. Each bill will feature four short plays, the XARC Festival, June 3-6.

The first bill will be performed Thursday, June 3, at 7 p.m. and Saturday, June 5, at 2 p.m.

The second bill will feature short plays on May 11, 13, 17, 18, and 20, from 7 to 8 p.m.

The final bill will feature short plays on May 20, 22, 24, and 25, from 7 to 8 p.m.

Tickets will be available at the door of the Performing Art Center. Call the CSUH Theatre Box Office, (510) 885-3261, for more information.

On Saturday, June 18, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., there will be a live performance at the exhibit. "There was a good turn out with lots of good pieces, and it was beautiful to be surrounded by so many good artists."

Fasha Bogom, assistant professor in communication studies at John F. Kennedy University in Berkeley, will provide two different programs of dance and spoken word performances by students from the XARC festival, June 3-6.

Laurie Williams, professor and director of the University Art Gallery, chose a different juror each year to maintain variety and fresh outlooks about art.

"I think this student exhibition provides more excitement than any other exhibit," said the faculty member, said Marie Royce, who has a photograph displayed in the exhibit. "Each year we have different juror each year to maintain variety and fresh outlooks about art."