As an incoming or current CSUEB student, you can join the new Global Citizens Club at the university’s International House and get both a great deal on housing and a fantastic opportunity to expand your educational and cultural experiences.

As a member, you will:

- have a chance to make new friends from all over the world
- experience different cultures and traditions
- enhance your understanding of the world and its complexities
- gain valuable skills for your future career

To join, please complete the application form available at the International House and bring it to the orientation session.
