What are the ideas in your classroom doing?
Community-Based & Community-Focused Learning

Brainstorm:

- How do public values, public policy, diversity, equality, social responsibility, and any other social issues interplay in your discipline?

- What current events connect with your discipline?

Choose:

- One or two items above. What population or group is most affected by these?

Think:

- Do you know of a community agency, organization, or non-profit that works with this population or to resolve this issue?

Choose:

- Is your course a good fit for a community-based project or assignment?

  ➢ If Yes:
    ➢ What kinds of projects can my students do in or for the community?

    The R.O.A.D. to Community-Based Learning:
    Resource/Materials Development
    Outreach
    Administrative support
    Direct client interaction

    ➢ Do I need help finding any agency or planning the project?
      cce@csueastbay.edu
      www.csueastbay.edu/communityengagement

  ➢ If No:
    ➢ What can my students do in the classroom to educate them about the issue/agency/organization?

    The Three “R’s” of Community-Focused Learning:
    Readings, Research, Reflection