1. Does the Annual Report have a self-study (one page)? Yes [X] No []

1a. Does the Annual Report record progress with departmental planning and review? – does it describe progress toward the program’s defined goals, any problems reaching its goals, any revisions to goals, and any new initiatives taken with respect to goals? Yes [X] No []

The report summarizes progress made of AGES being combined by three academic departments into a single unit after faculty and the college dean signed MOU for the first year of the merge which was unofficial. The official year started during the summer of 2014; therefore, the annual report separates the three academic departments that merged. The three departments agreed to start new for its next five year review.

1b. Does the Annual Report provide information on the program’s assessment processes? – does it provide information indicating the results of the program’s assessment efforts and/or efforts to further develop its assessment efforts? Yes [X] No []

1c. Does the Annual Report detail progress on fulfilling programmatic needs? – does it record significant events which have occurred or are imminent, such as changes to resources, retirements, new hires, curricular changes, honors received, etc? Yes [X] No []

Report highlights campus events involving AGES faculty and students. Faculty were active conducting presentations, serving on committees, receiving awards. AGES plans to integrate new courses as cross-list courses. Similar with new faculty when hiring hybrid tenure-track positions, since the status of 2 full-time Anthropology faculty changed after the merge.
