Department of English

Program to be Discontinued:* Interdisciplinary Language, Literature, and Writing Studies Option of the English B.A.

How many students are currently pursuing this program?* 12

Discontinuance Justification:* There are very few students in this option.

The Department is responsible for accommodating students in finishing their program.

Are the courses these students need still being offered and, if not, is the department ready to make appropriate substitutions?

Explain how the department will help students finish their program:*

Because the interdisciplinary option is very flexible in terms of course work beyond the core curriculum, the department chair will work with individual students in this option to develop a list of relevant courses in the quarter and semester systems that can be used to complete the option and degree in a timely manner. Core curriculum classes will remain the same in semesters, so core classes will be available to these students.

Resource Implications:* N/A
