TO: The Academic Senate
FROM: Committee on Instruction and Curriculum (CIC)
SUBJECT: 16-17 CIC 64: Revision request for Minors in Ethnic Studies
PURPOSE: Information to the Academic Senate
ACTION REQUESTED: That the Senate accept the information that the revision request for the following minors from the Department of Ethnic Studies have been approved by CIC: American Indian Studies, Asian American Studies, Black Studies, Chicano and Latinx Studies, and Genders and Sexualities in Communities of Color.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:
The Senate process for approving transformed degree programs for the semester calendar is defined by 14-15 CIC 36. The Committee discussed the minors from the Department of Ethnic Studies at its January 30, 2017 meeting, which was attended by Carlos Salomon, Chair of the Department of Ethnic Studies. It was noted that there were changes in the name for the formerly “African American Studies” and “Latino/a and Latin American Studies”, with the latter now concentrating solely on the ethnic group within the US. These was approved by CIC unanimously with the acknowledgement that some non-substantive changes may occur in the Catalog copy.

The proposals may be viewed within Curriculog: the summaries are attached as a PDF document per ExCom’s request.

Minor Requirements*

Minor in Asian American Studies (15 units)

The Asian American Studies Minor offers students majoring in another discipline the opportunity to acquire knowledge and understanding in one of the nation's emerging and rapidly growing ethnic groups. An exploration of art, literature, politics, and social dynamics of this community will prepare students to become dynamic leaders in fields such as education, law, non-profit management and more.

ES 100 Introduction to Social Justice on Communities of Color (3)
ES 389 Engaging in Communities of Color (3)

Electives (9 units)

Select nine (9) units from the following courses in the Asian American Studies concentration:
ES 360 Asian American Intimacies and Families (3)
ES 361 Asian Immigrant and Refugee Women in Literature and Cinema (3)
ES 362 Concentration Camps, USA (3)
ES 363 Asian American and Pacific Islander Film Festival (3)
ES 364 Asian American and Pacific Islander Communities (3)
ES 365 Asian American and Pacific Islander Environmental Voices (3)

Total Units Required 15

Additional Notes/Information
In this minor, students will have the opportunity to focus critical attention on Asian Americans, a population that "grew faster than any other race group in the U.S" according to the 2010 Census. This combined with the fact that California has the largest population of Asians in the entire nation makes this a valuable minor for students majoring in other disciplines who will likely continue to share schools, neighborhoods, workplaces, and public spaces with Asian Americans. In addition, Asian and Pacific ancestry origin students will gain insight into the complex conditions that led to their ancestors' contact with the U.S. which dates as far back as the mid-1850s and involves U.S. imperialism and military incursions throughout Asia and the Pacific. The Asian American Studies minor fulfills the University's Mission to provide "culturally relevant, learning experiences that prepare students to apply their education to meaningful lifework, and to be socially responsible contributors to society."

Students are required to take ES 100 (3 units), ES 389 (3 units) and 9 units in courses listed under the Asian American Studies concentration.
