

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, EAST BAY

DESIGNATION CODE: 07-08 CAPR 6 Revised

DATE SUBMITTED: December 5, 2007

TO: The Academic Senate

FROM: The Committee on Academic Planning and Review (CAPR)

SUBJECT: 1. Master of Science in Recreation Management
2. Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management
3. Bachelor of Science in Recreation
4. Discontinuance of the Option in Hospitality in the B.S. in Recreation

PURPOSE: For Action by the Academic Senate

ACTION

REQUESTED: That the Academic Senate approve the two new programs, the degree modification, and the option discontinuance for the M.S. and B.S. degree programs offered by the Department of Leadership on Hospitality and Leisure Services; effective Fall 2008.

BACKGROUND

INFORMATION: At the CAPR meeting of November 29, 2007, Professor Melany Spielman and Interim Dean Jodi Servatius discussed the various programs and related changes with committee members. During the meeting, revised documents were distributed by Professor Spielman.

The purpose of these proposals is

- a) to elevate the Option on Hospitality to its own degree program,
- b) to create a new M.S. in Recreation Management,
- c) to modify the existing Bachelor of Science in Recreation to remove the Option in Hospitality which is being elevated to degree status, and
- d) to discontinue the Option in Hospitality in the B.S. in Recreation.

RECOMMENDATION

That the revised documents provided to CAPR be attached to this document for Senate consideration and that the programs described in those documents be approved without modification.

DATE OF THE PROGRAM'S FIRST FIVE-YEAR REVIEW:

The first five year review of these programs will be held in 2012-2013, to coincide with the regular review cycle of other programs offered by the department.
