TO: The Academic Senate
FROM: Committee on Instruction and Curriculum
SUBJECT: Certificate in Early Childhood Development
PURPOSE: For Action by the Academic Senate

ACTION REQUESTED: That the Academic Senate approve the new Self-Support Certificate in Early Childhood Development offered through the Department of Human Development; effective for the 2011-12 catalog.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Concerns coming from the CEAS were discusses. If Pre-K programs come under the purview of NCATE accreditation, this program may also need to be evaluated by the standards of the accrediting body.

Also, CIC members wanted assurances that this certificate would comply with EO 802 by not mixing populations with regularly matriculated students and not supplanting offerings of these courses on the stateside.

CIC approved this certificate with a vote of 8/0/2 at its meeting on April 19, 2010.

All supporting documents for this certificate are available for review on the 4/19/10 CIC Sharepoint meeting workspace. The web link for this workspace is: https://sharepoint.csueastbay.edu/sites/AcademicSenate/CIC%20Meeting1/CIC%20Meeting%202009-10/default.aspx?InstanceId=1&InstanceId=20100419

See also 09-10 CAPR 13