TO: The Academic Senate

FROM: The Executive Committee

SUBJECT: 13-14 BEC 11: Changes to the Constitution and Bylaws of the University Faculty of CSU East Bay

ACTION REQUESTED: That the Academic Senate approve the following changes to the CSU East Bay Constitution and Bylaws of the University Faculty and send it to the faculty for a vote of approval on the Winter Quarter ballot.

BACKGROUND:

During Summer 2012, a Constitution and Bylaws Task Force reviewed the current CSU East Bay Constitution and Bylaws document to clarify and update the document's language and policy. Once completed, the report of the C&B Task Force was reviewed by FAC where the edits were further refined. FAC further refined the proposals and sent it to the Senate as 12-13 FAC 9. After some amendments by the Senate, the proposal was sent to the faculty and approved. However, it was rejected by President Morishita. ExCom is resending the document, without the Article IX amendments, to the Senate.

ACTION REQUESTED:

That the Academic Senate place the following amendments to Constitution and Bylaws of the University Faculty on the faculty ballot for Winter Quarter. If approved by 2/3rds of the University Faculty voting, the amendments will be sent to the President for ratification.

SECTION 1: PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, EAST BAY
THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY

PREAMBLE

Under the authority of the Trustees of the California State University, final authority and responsibility for the conduct of the affairs of the University are vested in the President of the University. Effective conduct of these affairs requires the joint effort of the President and the University Faculty. Such joint effort, with full and open communication, can realize the high potential of the University.

This Constitution expresses the principles of policy and procedure through which the University Faculty is consulted and makes official recommendations concerning the affairs of the University. It establishes the organization of the University Faculty through which effective recommendations may be made about the operation of the University and the welfare of the faculty members. This Constitution is based upon the policies contained in the "STATEMENT ON GOVERNANCE OF COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES" approved by the faculty government and adopted as basic policy of the University by the President of the College in May of 1967.

ARTICLE I

GOVERNING PRINCIPLES

SECTION 1: The President of the University has final authority and responsibility for the operation of the University. In conducting the affairs of the University he/she has the responsibility to consult, formally and informally, with the faculty. The faculty has the responsibility to make formal and informal recommendations to the President. This Constitution expresses the nature of the responsibilities to recommend of the faculty at the several levels of organization of the University, the nature of the procedures through which official consultation and recommendation are to occur, and the agencies of the faculty which will make official faculty recommendations.

SECTION 2: In official consultation and recommendation, the organization provided in this Constitution shall be the official voice of the faculty, to maintain current knowledge of the recommendations being made, and to facilitate communication among the members of the University Faculty.

SECTION 3: When official recommendations are made, within the various levels of organization of the faculty and of the University, the group making the recommendation has the right to a full hearing; a prompt response; and the privilege of further consideration should the recommendation not be accepted.

SECTION 4: Recommendations of the faculty should be accorded attention and influence in proportion to the directness with which decisions will touch the competence and the welfare of the faculty.

ARTICLE II

DEPARTMENT FACULTIES

SECTION 1: The departments of the University are the primary administrative and academic elements of the University. The operation of the department, its structural organization, and its offerings should reflect most closely the professional judgment of the faculty. In the reorganization of departments, the review of departmental administration, the official assignment of persons as members of the department, and the offerings of the Department Faculty, the Department Faculty is the official body for consultation and recommendation procedures.

SECTION 2: No person shall be a Regular Member of more than one Department. Every person is a Regular Member of a Department Faculty who:

A. holds a full-time, annual, academic appointment within the University; and

B. is officially assigned to a teaching service area administered by the department; and

C. holds academic rank of Instructor or higher.

A person holding a lecturer's appointment is not eligible for Regular Membership of the Department Faculty.

SECTION 3: The Regular Members of the Department Faculty may grant the privilege of participating in the affairs of the Department Faculty to other members of the professional staff of the University. Any such members shall be Special Members of the Department Faculty.

SECTION 4: In elections of the Department Faculty, each Regular Member shall have one and only one vote. Any provisions for voting by Special Members of the Department Faculty shall be established by the Regular Members of the Department Faculty.

SECTION 5: The Department Faculty shall have primary responsibility for:

A. electing persons to the status of Special Member of the Department Faculty;

B. establishing any written Bylaws, consistent with this Constitution and the Bylaws of the University Faculty, for its guidance;

C. establishing a Faculty Council to work with its Department Chair, if it so desires;

D. electing members of its Faculty Council; and

E. reviewing any decisions of its Faculty Council.

SECTION 6: The Department Faculty shall have the primary responsibility for recommendations concerning:

A. courses, programs, and degrees in its academic discipline;

B. instruction and research in its academic discipline;

C. requirements, standards, activities, placement, and honors for the students in its courses and programs;

D. standards for and evaluation of instruction, advising, research, and ethics in its discipline and in its programs;

E. appointment, retention, tenure, promotion, discipline, leaves of absence, and honors of all members of the department;

F. development with other departments of interdisciplinary programs which include its academic discipline; and

G. the nomination and review, at intervals not greater than three (3) years, of its chair, according to procedures specified in the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

SECTION 7: Any Department Faculty may establish a Faculty Council to work with its Department Chair. If a Faculty Council is formed, its membership shall be elected by the Department Faculty. Any Department Faculty may delegate, by written Bylaws, to its Faculty Council any of its recommending responsibilities. It may not delegate to its Faculty Council any of the primary responsibilities listed in Section 5, above.

ARTICLE III

COLLEGE FACULTIES

SECTION 1: The Colleges of the University are secondary administrative and academic elements of the University. The operation of the College, its structural organization, and its offerings should reflect closely the professional judgment of its faculty. In the reorganization of Colleges, the review of College administration, and the offerings of the College Faculty, the College Faculty is the official body for consultation and recommendation procedures.

SECTION 2: No person shall be a Regular Member of more than one College. The Regular Members of a College Faculty are the Deans of the College; the Regular Members of the departments within the College; and every person who:

A. holds a full-time, annual, academic appointment within the University;

B. is officially assigned to a teaching service area administered by that College; and

C. holds academic rank of Instructor or higher.

A person holding a lecturer's appointment is not eligible for Regular Membership of the College Faculty.

SECTION 3: The Regular Members of the College Faculty may grant the privilege of participating in the affairs of the College Faculty to other members of the professional staff of the University. Any such members shall be Special Members of the College Faculty.

SECTION 4: In elections of the College Faculty, each Regular Member shall have one and only one vote. Any provisions for voting by Special Members of the College Faculty shall be established by the Regular Members of the College Faculty.

SECTION 5: The College Faculty shall have primary responsibility for:
A. electing persons to the status of Special Member of the College Faculty;
B. electing members of the Academic Senate representing the College;
C. establishing any written Bylaws, consistent with this Constitution and with the Bylaws of the University Faculty, for its guidance; and
D. establishing a College Assembly to work with its College Dean if it so desires;
E. electing members of its College Assembly; and
D. serving as a Board of Appeals from decisions of the College Assembly.

SECTION 6: The College Faculty shall have the primary responsibility for recommendations concerning:

A. coordination and evaluation of the work of its departments;
B. candidates completing degrees and programs within its departments;
C. interdepartmental programs within its academic disciplines;
D. appointment, retention, tenure, promotion, discipline, leaves of absence, and honors of all members of the College;
E. the standards for and maintenance of a high level of professional conduct among its members; and
F. the nomination and review, at intervals not greater than five (5) years, of its administrative officers, according to procedures specified in the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

SECTION 7: Any College Faculty may establish a College Assembly to work with the College Dean of its College. If a College Assembly is formed, its membership shall be elected by the College Faculty. Any College Faculty may delegate, by written Bylaws, to its College Assembly any of its recommending responsibilities. It may not delegate to its College Assembly any of the primary responsibilities listed in Section 5, above.

SECTION 8: The Regular Members of the Division of University Libraries shall be the University Librarian and the professional librarians tenured/tenure track library faculty holding full-time, annual appointments in that division. This division The University Libraries shall be treated as a College under this Constitution for purposes of defining Regular Membership in the University Faculty (See Article
IV, Section 2) and of representation on the Academic Senate (Article V, Section 2).

ARTICLE IV
UNIVERSITY FACULTY

SECTION 1: The operation of the University, its structural organization, and its offerings should reflect the professional judgment of its faculty. In the reorganization of the University, the review of University administration, and the offerings of the University Faculty, the University Faculty is the official body for consultation and SECTION 2: The Regular Members of the University Faculty are the President, Vice Presidents, and academic Associate Vice Presidents, Regular Members of the College Faculties within the University; the Regular Members of the Division of University Libraries and other individuals holding tenure in an academic department. FERP (Faculty Early Retirement Program) and PRTB (Partially Reduced Time Base) faculty are included during quarters when in active employment. In addition, those individuals who are Regular Members of the University Faculty according to Article IV, Section 2 of this Constitution as of March 1, 1989, shall retain such membership as long as they occupy their present positions with the University. The Office of the Academic Senate shall maintain a list of these individuals.

SECTION 3: In elections of the University Faculty, each Regular Member shall have one and only one vote.

SECTION 4: The University Faculty shall have the primary responsibility for:

A. the conferring of earned degrees;
B. the election of the Faculty Marshal and the representatives of the University Faculty on the Academic Senate of the California State University;
C. establishing its Bylaws to govern the procedures for implementing the provisions of this Constitution;
D. serving as a Board of Appeals from the decisions of the Academic Senate; and
E. any other authority delegated to it by higher authority.

SECTION 5: The University Faculty shall have the primary responsibility for recommendations concerning:

A. the coordination and evaluation of the work of its Colleges;
B. the development and coordination of inter-College programs and programs not within the assigned functions of its departments and Colleges;
C. policies affecting instruction and research;
D. student affairs;
E. the professional standards, ethics, and welfare of the academic members of the University staff; and
F. the nomination and review of its administrative officers.

SECTION 6: The University Faculty shall be consulted on:

A. the planning and development of the campus and buildings of the University; and
B. the allocation of funds, staff, equipment, and facilities among the programs of the University.
SECTION 7: The University Faculty shall establish an Academic Senate for the purpose of conducting the affairs of the University Faculty. The University Faculty may delegate by its Bylaws any of its authority and responsibilities to the Academic Senate except the approval of candidates for degrees, the election of the Faculty Marshal and the representatives of the University Faculty on the Academic Senate of the California State University, the election of members of the Academic Senate, and the approval of the Bylaws of the University Faculty. The University Faculty retains the right of review of the actions of the Academic Senate.

ARTICLE V
THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: The Academic Senate shall:

A. coordinate the affairs of the University Faculty and its constituent faculties;

B. make recommendations to the President of the University in the name of the University Faculty under the authority delegated to it in the Bylaws of the University Faculty;

C. establish and operate a system of committees, as provided in the Bylaws of the University Faculty, to conduct the business of the University Faculty;

D. serve as the voice of the University Faculty in consultation with the President, the Chancellor, and other persons and agencies, under the authority provided in the Bylaws of the University Faculty;

E. in consultation with the President, resolve all questions of the interpretation of the Constitution of the University Faculty; and

F. resolve all questions of the interpretation of the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

SECTION 2: The membership of the Academic Senate shall include:

A. the President of the University as an ex-officio, non-voting member;

B. the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs, as an ex-officio, voting member;

C. the representatives of the University in the Academic Senate of the California State University;

D. twenty-five (25) members elected by and from the Colleges of the University, distributed in proportion to the number of Regular Members in the Colleges, provided that every College shall have at least one member in the Academic Senate;

E. ten (10) members-at-large, elected by and from the Regular Members of the University Faculty;

F. one (1) member elected by and from faculty who has achieved emeritus/emerita status, in accordance with Article VIII of the Bylaws of the University Faculty;
G. four (4) members elected by and from the University lecturers, in accordance with Article IX of the Bylaws of the University Faculty;

H. two (2) members elected by and from the Student Services electorate, in accordance with Article X of the Bylaws of the University Faculty;

I. one (1) staff member selected in accordance with Article XI of the Bylaws of the University Faculty;

J. the same number of members as the smallest College (not including the University Libraries) selected from among undergraduate or graduate students, in accordance with Article XII of the Bylaws of the University Faculty;

K. the chair of each standing committee of the Academic Senate; and

L. the immediate past-chair of the Academic Senate.

Members of the Academic Senate, except emeriti, lecturers, Student Services, Staff and student members, shall be Regular Members of the University Faculty.

SECTION 3: The Academic Senate shall meet and act in accordance with the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

ARTICLE VI
THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY OFFICERS

SECTION 1: The officers of the University Faculty shall be the President of the University, the officers of the Academic Senate, the Faculty Marshal, and the representatives of the University Faculty on the Academic Senate of the California State University. These officers shall be the Agenda Committee of the University Faculty.

SECTION 2: The Chair, Vice Chair, and Secretary of the Academic Senate shall serve the respective functions of officers of the University Faculty.

SECTION 3: The Faculty Marshal shall be responsible for conducting all University Faculty elections and shall have such other duties as are provided in the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

SECTION 4: The representatives of the University Faculty on the Academic Senate of the California State University shall have such duties, in addition to those required by their statewide office, as are provided in the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

SECTION 5: The Faculty Marshal and the representatives of the University Faculty on the Academic Senate of the California State University shall be elected by and from the Regular Members of the University Faculty as provided in the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

ARTICLE VII
RECALL OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1: The Regular Members of any of the faculties of the University and its subdivisions shall institute an election for the recall of any elected officer or SECTION 2: The Regular Members of the faculty of a department or College shall request a review of the administration of their department or College by the President when at least one-third of the Regular Members of the Department or College Faculty have petitioned for such a review.

SECTION 3: The method for recalling a student representative shall be determined by the Associated Student Body President and Council, subject to the approval of the Academic Senate.

SECTION 4: The method for recalling a Student Services representative shall be determined by the Student Services electorate, subject to the approval of the Academic Senate.

SECTION 5: The method for recalling an emeriti representative shall be determined by the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate, subject to the approval of the Academic Senate.

SECTION 6: The method for recalling a lecturer representative shall be determined by the Lecturer Electorate, subject to the approval of the Academic Senate.

SECTION 7: The method for recalling a staff representative shall be by a majority vote of same body that elected the representative determined by the Executive Committee, upon receipt of petition of at least five percent (5%) of staff members.

ARTICLE VIII
STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN FACULTY GOVERNANCE

SECTION 1: Student members, with number as specified in Article V, Section 2, J, shall be regular voting members of the Academic Senate.

SECTION 2: Two (2) student members shall be regular voting members of each standing committee-established in the Bylaws, with the exception of the Faculty Affairs Committee and the Committee on Budget and Resource Allocation, (see also Bylaws XII). For those standing committees for which students are eligible to serve, representatives shall be selected in accordance with Article XVI of the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

ARTICLE IX
THE BYLAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY

SECTION 1: The University Faculty shall establish a written set of Bylaws for the purposes of stating the faculty organization, procedures, practices, regulations, and policies implementing the provisions of this Constitution. The Bylaws shall contain, at least, the procedures for and regulations governing the election of the Faculty Marshal, the representatives of the University Faculty in the Academic Senate of the California State University, and the members of the Academic Senate; the procedures for, organization of, and regulations governing the commissions, committees, and other bodies of the University Faculty; the procedures for and regulations governing the formal and official consultation and recommendation responsibilities of the University Faculty and its Senate; and the procedures for regulations governing the conduct of the business of the University Faculty and its Senate. The Bylaws may provide for standing rules for the operation throughout the year of the meetings of the University Faculty and for the year-round operation of the Academic Senate, commissions, committees, and other bodies, provided that the standing rules do not conflict with the provisions of this Constitution or the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

SECTION 2: The Bylaws of the University Faculty shall be adopted by a two-thirds favorable vote in an election in which a majority of the persons eligible to be Regular Members of the University Faculty under this Constitution cast votes. The election shall be conducted by the incumbent faculty secretary.

SECTION 3: Amendments to the Bylaws of the University Faculty shall be made by the University Faculty by a majority vote in an election in which a majority of the Regular Members cast votes.

SECTION 4: Statements of policy and procedures adopted by the Academic Senate and approved by the President of the University shall be published along with the Bylaws of the University Faculty for the information of the University Faculty.

ARTICLE X
AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

SECTION 1: The University Faculty may vote to amend this Constitution in a university-wide election of the regular members. An amendment shall be adopted by the University Faculty when two-thirds of the members voting approve the amendment. University-wide elections shall have a minimum length of ten (10) academic days. The University Faculty shall not delegate the power to amend this Constitution except in pro forma cases provided for in Section 5 of this Article.

SECTION 2: An amendment of the Constitution shall be effective immediately or on a specified date, whichever is later, and become a part of the Constitution when the University Faculty has voted to amend and the President of the University has ratified the amendment.

SECTION 3: An amendment to this Constitution may be proposed by:

A. the Academic Senate, by a two-thirds majority vote of those voting;

B. the President of the University; or

C. five percent (5%) of the Regular Members of the University Faculty.

SECTION 4: Proposed amendments shall be presented to the Secretary of the Academic Senate. The Secretary shall distribute copies of each proposed amendment qualified for election, within five (5) academic days of receipt, to all Regular Members of the University Faculty. An election shall be held on each such proposed amendment not less than ten (10) or no more than twenty (20) academic days after it has been distributed to the University Faculty.

SECTION 5: Whenever an official reorganization of the University requires alterations in this Constitution, involving such matters as changes in names, titles, and structures of subdivisions of the University, the Academic Senate shall establish an ad hoc committee to make the changes in the Constitution necessary to accommodate the new organization. If any such reorganization requires a change of substantive nature, the amendment shall be submitted to the University Faculty; if an amendment is nominal and mechanical, it may be approved by two-thirds of the Academic Senate present and voting, provided that upon petition by five percent (5%) of the Regular Members of the University Faculty, such an amendment shall be submitted to the University Faculty for a vote.

ARTICLE XI
ADOPTION OF THIS CONSTITUTION

SECTION 1: This Constitution shall be deemed adopted, replacing the previously existing Constitution, when:

A. after an election conducted by the heretofore existing Representative Assembly, in which it is approved by two-thirds of the heretofore existing Faculty Senate voting, provided that no fewer than one-half of the members cast ballots; and

B. the President of the University shall have ratified it.

SECTION 2: Upon adoption of this Constitution, the Representative Assembly of the heretofore existing Faculty Senate shall issue a call for an election of the new Academic Senate under the provisions of this Constitution. Upon the satisfactory completion of the election of the new Academic Senate, the previously existing Representative Assembly shall disband, and the new Academic Senate shall assume office. Until such time as the Bylaws of the University Faculty have been approved by the University Faculty and the relevant provisions have been implemented, the provisions for committees, the policies, and the regulations of the faculty under the previous Constitution shall remain in effect. Points of disagreement between provisions of the previous Constitution and this Constitution shall be resolved by the Academic Senate and the President of the University, jointly, using the new Constitution as a guide.

SECTION 3: Upon the adoption and ratification of this Constitution, each department and division shall organize its faculty in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution. Official consultation concerning the offerings of a department or of a division, or concerning the nomination and review of the administration of a department or of a division, shall be made through the faculty of the department or division.

ARTICLE XII
PERIODIC REVIEW OF THE CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

SECTION 1: The Academic Senate shall call for a review of the Constitution & Bylaws every five (5) years to ensure accuracy, consistency, and conformance with the collective bargaining agreement between the faculty and the California State University.
SECTION 2: The Faculty Affairs Committee will be charged with the review.
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, EAST BAY
BYLAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY
PREAMBLE

These Bylaws are established by the University Faculty to give effect to the provisions of the Constitution of the University Faculty approved by the Faculty on February 28, 1969. As authorized by Article IV of the Constitution, the Bylaws of the University Faculty provide the specific procedures and regulations governing the operation of the University and its subdivisions.

ARTICLE I
MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY

SECTION 1: Definitions
The following definitions are to be used in determining the eligibility of a faculty member to hold status as a regular member of the University Faculty:

A. "Full-time" - a person is employed in the University at full salary for his/her position;

B. "Annual" - the employee of the University is appointed to serve for a full academic year (three or four quarters) at a time;

C. "Academic" - an employee of the University who is assigned to teaching or research or to departmental administration. (See Constitution: Article II, Section 2; Article III, Section 2.)

SECTION 2: Membership Committee
The Faculty Marshal, the Chair of the Academic Senate and the Secretary of the Academic Senate, with the Faculty Marshal as Chair, shall serve as the Membership Committee of the University Faculty. At the beginning of each quarter, this committee shall determine and publish the names of those qualified for membership as regular members of the College, Department, and University Faculties. The Membership Committee shall make a ruling when a dispute arises. If any regular member of the University Faculty challenges this ruling, the matter shall be referred to the Academic Senate.

SECTION 3: Regular Members on Leave
A regular member of any faculty on leave of absence from the University remains a regular member of that faculty.

SECTION 4: Emeriti Members
Upon retirement, a tenured regular member of the faculty who has a minimum of twelve years of full-time service to the University or, on the basis of exceptional contributions has been recommended by his or her academic department or division and approved by the President, shall be granted emeritus/emerita status.

SECTION 4: Emeriti Members

A. Emeriti members of the faculty are defined by the campus policy of Emeritus/a Status.
B. The Membership Committee of the University Faculty may obtain a current list of the emeriti faculty from the Academic Affairs Office and shall provide accurate rosters for elections of the emeriti representative to the Academic Senate.

ARTICLE II
OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY
EXTRA-CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES

SECTION 1: Additional Duties of Officers

In addition to the duties inherent in their offices and the duties charged to them by the Constitution,

A. The President of the University shall preside at meetings of the University Faculty except as provided in Article III, Section 3, and he/she shall be Chair of the University Faculty Agenda Committee.

B. The Vice Chair of the Academic Senate shall assume the duties of the Chair in his/her absence.

C. The Chair of the Academic Senate shall supervise the Office of the Academic Senate.

D. The Faculty Marshal shall preside at meetings of the University Faculty as provided in Article III, Section 3; he/she shall serve as Chair of the University Faculty Membership Committee; and he/she shall assemble and lead the faculty in academic processions.

ARTICLE III
MEETINGS OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY

SECTION 1: Convening of Meetings

The University Faculty Agenda Committee shall convene meetings of the University Faculty at the request of:

A. The President of the University;

B. The Academic Senate;

C. Five percent of the regular members of the University Faculty, who shall make their request by means of petition.

Requests made to the University Faculty Agenda Committee shall list the subjects to be considered. The University President shall preside at Agenda Committee meetings.

SECTION 2: Scheduling of Meetings

Requests for a University Faculty Meeting shall be addressed to the University President. Following the receipt of the request, he/she shall schedule an Agenda Committee meeting in not more than three academic days. A majority of this Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Agenda Committee shall then schedule the University Faculty meeting to be held within ten academic days and shall prepare and publish the agenda for the meeting. Faculty members should receive written notification of time, place, and agenda at least three academic days prior to the meeting except under emergency conditions as defined by the Agenda Committee.

SECTION 3: Presiding Officers

The President of the University shall serve as the presiding officer of the meetings of the University Faculty except that:

A. he/she may delegate the responsibility to the Chair of the Academic Senate or to the Faculty Marshal; and

B. The Chair of the Academic Senate shall preside when a recommendation of the University Faculty to the President of the University is under consideration.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE AND THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SECTION 1: Officers

The officers of the Academic Senate shall be the Chair, the Vice Chair, and the Secretary.

SECTION 2: Duties of Chair and Vice Chair

The Chair of the Academic Senate shall preside at its meetings. When the Chair is absent, or when he/she relinquishes the Chair in order to participate in discussion, the Vice Chair shall preside.

SECTION 3: Duties of the Secretary

The Secretary of the Academic Senate shall keep the records of the Academic Senate, of the Executive Committee, and of the University Faculty.

SECTION 4: Chair Pro Tempore

At any meeting of the Academic Senate at which neither the Chair nor the Vice Chair is present, or for any item in the Senate for which both the Chair and the Vice Chair wish to participate, the Senate shall, for that meeting only, elect a Chair pro tempore.

SECTION 5: Executive Committee

The Officers of the Academic Senate, the President of the University (as an ex-officio, non-voting member), the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs (as an ex-officio, voting member), the immediate Past Chair of the Academic Senate, Academic Senators of the California State University, and five persons elected by the Academic Senate from among its members shall serve as the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate. The Committee shall supervise the work of the Senate and prepare the agenda for its meetings. In considering a submission for the agenda of the Senate, the Executive Committee may place it on the agenda or make appropriate referral. If the Executive Committee makes any revision in form or in substance before placing an item on the agenda, the nature and extent of the revisions shall be reported to the Senate and to the originator.

SECTION 6: Personnel Matters

When considering personnel matters relating directly to individual members of the faculty or the administration, the Executive Committee shall meet in executive session.

SECTION 7: Organizational Meeting Voting

Only the new or continuing Staff Representative, the Statewide Academic Senators, the newly elected Standing Committee Chairs, the newly elected Academic Senators, Members of the Senate and those Academic Senators in the middle of an elected two-year term are eligible to vote in the organizational meeting of the new Academic Senate. Absentee and/or proxy voting shall not be permitted.

ARTICLE V
GENERAL PROCEDURES FOR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS
OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTIES AND THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: Parliamentary Procedure

Meetings of the University Faculties and the Academic Senate shall be guided by generally accepted rules of parliamentary procedure except on points where standing rules direct otherwise.

SECTION 2: Standing Rules

The Academic Senate shall adopt standing rules; and these shall include provisions for conducting the business of the Senate throughout the University year. The several University Faculties may adopt standing rules. (See Constitution: Article II, III, IV.)

SECTION 3: Voting

A. Voting at meetings of the University Faculties, Academic Senate and Executive Committee shall be by voice unless a show of hands or a division of the house is requested by a member. A written ballot shall be required for every contested election to office, and shall be permitted as a method of voting in other cases upon concurrence of a majority of the members present.

B. Each eligible voting member shall have one vote.

C. Voting by email is permitted when issues need immediate action by the Senate or its committees. If there is a substantive objection by a member, as determined by the Chair of the voting body, email voting will be suspended and the matter will either wait for the next meeting or a special meeting may be called. Voting may only be administered by the Chair of the committee or by the Senate Office.
SECTION 4: Minutes

The Secretary of the Academic Senate shall keep minutes for each meeting of the University Faculty, and of the Academic Senate. These shall be a summary of the discussion on every matter of importance. Every motion which has been made at the meeting shall be contained in the minutes and the disposition of each one of them shall be made clear. Any counting of votes made at the meeting shall be recorded in the minutes. Other faculties should provide for the keeping of minutes.

SECTION 5: Quorums

A quorum of the University Faculty for any meeting shall be 25% of the whole regular membership. A quorum for the Academic Senate shall be 50% of the faculty members who have been elected at-large and from the Colleges. Other faculties of the University may establish whatever quorums they deem appropriate.

SECTION 6: Parliamentarian

The presiding officers of each of the University Faculties and the Academic Senate may appoint a parliamentarian who shall advise on procedural rulings at the request of the presiding officer. Parliamentarians shall be guided by generally accepted rules of parliamentary procedure, and by standing rules where they have been adopted.

SECTION 7: Privileges of the Floor

The University Faculties and the Academic Senate may grant the privilege of the floor to non-members by a vote of a majority of the members present.

SECTION 8: Election and Recall Procedures

The faculty of each College and each Division having College status (as defined in Article III, Section 8 of the Constitution) shall establish election and recall procedures, which shall apply to the College representatives on the Academic Senate and its committees, and such other election as the College or Division may determine. The procedures shall be subject to the approval of the Academic Senate.

UNIVERSITY-WIDE ELECTION PROCEDURES

SECTION 1: Annual Elections

Annual elections shall be held prior to March fifteenth (15) to elect a Faculty Marshal, Academic Senators of The California State University (in years when there are seats to be filled), and representatives-at-large to the Academic Senate. The results of these elections shall be announced no later than three (3) days following the voting deadline election or before April 25. The term of each person elected in an annual election shall begin on June fifteenth (15), except that the term of an Academic Senator of The California State University shall begin on... or before June fifteenth (15) (beginning with the organizational meeting of the CSU Senate).

SECTION 2: Terms of Office

A. Faculty Marshal. The Faculty Marshal shall serve a term of one year. He/she may be re-elected, but may not serve more than two successive terms.

B. Academic Senators. Each representative to the Academic Senate, except the lecturer and student representatives (see Articles IX and XII), Each representative elected under Article V, sections 2 D), E), F), H) and I) of the Constitution shall be elected for a term of two years and may serve two consecutive terms. Having served such consecutive terms, he/she shall not be eligible to serve again within a year. A person elected to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for election to two two-year terms of his/ her own, provided no person shall serve more than five consecutive years.

C. Balance of Alternation. When necessary and notwithstanding provisions in Part B of this Section, before each election the Faculty Marshal shall assign to each College the number of one-year terms that will establish or maintain a balance of alternation.

SECTION 3: Nominations

The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate (see Article IV, Section 5) shall make nominations for the offices listed in Section 1, assuring that there are at least two nominees for each position to be filled, and shall process additional nominations received by petition. Each person nominated shall have given his/her written consent (via email is acceptable) to having his/her name appear on the ballot. In conducting the nominating process, the Committee shall follow these procedures, using either electronic or hard copy distribution:

A. Not less than ten academic days before the scheduled election the Committee shall publish to the University Faculty a statement of the positions to be filled, a list of continuing members of the Academic Senate and continuing Academic Senators of The California State University, (when there is a seat in the Senate, California State University to be filled), and a preliminary list of nominees.

B. For a period of five academic days after the publishing of the preliminary list the Committee shall accept nominating petitions from the faculty. A petition to nominate must bear the signatures of the nominee and five other regular members of the University Faculty. Each petition shall be forwarded to the Committee through the Office of the Academic Senate.

C. After the last day for nomination by petition, the Committee shall certify the eligibility of each nominee.

SECTION 4: Voting

Voting for all officers listed in Section 1 shall be by mail ballot, which can be either electronic voting or by hard copy, as long as voting anonymity is ensured.
In each annual election, balloting shall continue for ten consecutive academic days. Results shall be announced within three academic days after the last day of SECTION 5: Conducting Mail Ballots

The Executive Committee (see Article IV, Section 5) shall supervise mail ballots. The Committee shall proceed in the following way:

A. The Committee shall send to each member of the University faculty eligible to vote in the election a "Notice of Election by Mail." The notice shall state the offices to be filled and/or items to be voted upon (together with information showing the source of each item, and any action taken on each item by the Academic Senate), the ballot and return envelopes and a statement of the procedures and time limits for voting.

B. The Committee shall also:

1) ensure anonymity in balloting;

2) check the roster of those eligible to vote against the ballots received;

3) arrange for the counting of the ballots, and announce the results of election within three academic days after balloting has been completed; and

4) if ties occur, determine the rank order of the tied nominees by drawing lots and giving the winner of the drawing the higher and the loser the next lower rank in the balloting.

SECTION 6: Invalidation of Election

Upon receiving a report from the Executive Committee the Academic Senate may, if there because, invalidate an election, or any part of it, and require that another election be held.

SECTION 7: Vacancies

If an office listed in Section 1 becomes vacant for more than one quarter, the Academic Senate shall nominate at least two persons and select one of them by written ballot to serve the period of absence. If such an office becomes vacant with one quarter or less remaining in the term of office, the Executive Committee may fill the vacancy by appointment for the balance of the term. If an Academic Senator of The California State University is temporarily unable to perform his/her duties as Senator, the Executive Committee may appoint an alternate Senator to fulfill the obligations of that office during the Senator's absence.

SECTION 8: Recall Election

If a petition by fifteen percent (15%) of the University Faculty requesting the recall of an officer listed in Section 1 is filed with the Executive Committee, it shall conduct an election by mail (electronic or hard copy) in accordance with the provisions established herein. The election shall be conducted beginning on the sixth academic day following the Executive Committee meeting and shall last five academic days. The question shall be put, "Shall (name of office holder and office he/she holds) be recalled?" If a majority of those voting favor recall, the position shall be declared vacant and shall be filled as prescribed in Section 7.

ARTICLE VII
REPRESENTATION OF COLLEGES IN THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: University Libraries treated as a College, Divisions treated as Colleges

For the purposes of representation in the Academic Senate and its committees, the Division of University Libraries shall be treated as a College. (See also, Article XVI, Section 2, below.)

SECTION 2: Proportional Representation in the Academic Senate

In the Winter Quarter of each year the Faculty Marshal, in consultation with the Executive Committee, shall allocate to each College Faculty the number of Senate representatives to which it is entitled. The allocation of 25 College representatives to the several Colleges shall be proportional to the number of regular members in the College Faculties, provided no College shall be unrepresented. Taking into consideration the number of continuing representatives of each College, the Faculty Marshal shall inform each College Dean of the number of representatives to be elected to one- and two-year terms. If a College would be over-represented by the continuance in office of its representatives who have unexpired terms, the Faculty Marshal shall notify the College Dean of the need to relinquish representative(s). The College Faculty shall determine which representative(s) shall be removed.

SECTION 3: Election of College Representatives

After the announcement of the results of the election of representatives-at-large of the Academic Senate, each College Faculty shall elect to the Senate the number of representatives to which it is entitled. The elections shall be completed by May 15 and the results of these elections shall be certified to the Faculty Marshal, who will announce them to the University.

SECTION 4: Disbandment of Colleges

Whenever a College Faculty is disbanded because of reorganization of the University, all of its representatives shall resign from the Academic Senate. The Faculty Marshal shall then determine the necessary adjustment in the distribution of College representatives, and shall notify the Dean of each College which has gained a seat, or seats, because of the adjustment. Each such College, following regular election procedures, shall elect its newly acquired representative(s) for term(s) which will maintain the balance of alternation.

SECTION 5: Vacancies in College Representation

If a vacancy of more than one quarter occurs in the representation of a College, the Executive Committee shall request the College or Division to hold a special election to fill the vacancy for the period of absence, following regular election procedures. If the vacancy is for one quarter or less, the Executive Committee may appoint a member of the appropriate College or Division to fill the vacancy.
ARTICLE VIII
REPRESENTATION OF EMERITI IN THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: Emeritus/a Member of the Academic Senate

In Spring Quarter, the Executive Committee shall request the secretary of the Academic Senate to arrange for the selection of one (1) emeritus/emerita member of the Academic Senate by May fifteenth (15). The emeriti electorate is defined as those individuals who have achieved emeritus or emerita status, according to Article I, Section 4, of these Faculty Bylaws.

SECTION 2: Election of Emeritus/a Member of the Academic Senate

The nomination and election of an emeriti faculty representative shall be completed by May 15 and the results of the election shall be certified to the Faculty Marshal, who will announce them to the University. The term of the elected Senator shall begin on June 15 and shall run for a period of two (2) years. The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate shall make nominations, assuring that there shall be at least two nominees for the position to be filled, and shall process additional nominations received by petition. Each person nominated shall have given his/her written consent to having his/her name appear on the ballot. In conducting the nominating process, the Executive Committee shall follow these procedures:

A. Not less than ten academic days before the scheduled election, the Executive Committee shall develop a preliminary list of nominees and have it mailed to the emeriti faculty in accord with Article VI, Section 5 of the Bylaws of the University Faculty.

B. For a period of ten (10) academic days after the mailing of the preliminary list, the Executive Committee shall accept further nominations for the emeritus/a seat, including self-nominations. All nominations must bear the signature of the nominee. Each nomination shall be forwarded to the Executive Committee through the Office of the Academic Senate.

C. After the last day for nominations by petition, the Executive Committee shall certify the eligibility of each nominee. Each eligible Professor Emeritus or Emerita shall be allowed to vote for one candidate. Voting shall be in accordance with Article VI, Sections 4 and 5 of the Faculty Bylaws.

D. If a vacancy of one year or more occurs in the representation of the emeriti faculty, the Executive Committee shall conduct a special election to fill the vacancy for the remainder of that term from among the emeriti electorate. If the vacancy is for less than one year, the Executive Committee may appoint an emeritus/emerita faculty member to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE IX
REPRESENTATION OF LECTURERS IN THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: Lecturer Members of the Academic Senate

In Spring Quarter, the Executive Committee shall request the secretary of the Academic Senate to arrange for the election of four (4) at-large lecturer members of the Academic Senate. The lecturer electorate is defined as those individuals who have annual appointments of half-time or more, except for CSUEB graduate students, as defined by Article XII, Section 1 of the Faculty Bylaws. A lecturer representative will serve a one-year term and may serve for four consecutive terms.

SECTION 2: Election of Lecturer Members to the Academic Senate

The nomination and election of lecturer representatives shall be completed by May 15 and the results of the election shall be certified to the Faculty Marshal, who will announce them to the University. The term of each person elected shall begin on June 15. The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate shall make nominations, assuring that there are at least five nominees for the four positions to be filled, and shall process additional nominations received by petition. Each person nominated shall have given his/her written consent to having his/her name appear on the ballot. In conducting the nominating process, the Executive Committee shall follow these procedures:

A. Not less than ten academic days before the scheduled election, the Executive Committee shall publish a preliminary list of nominees.

B. For a period of five academic days after the publishing of the preliminary list, the Executive Committee shall accept nominating petitions from the lecturers. A petition to nominate must bear the signatures of the nominee and three other lecturers. Each petition shall be forwarded to the Executive Committee through the Office of the Academic Senate.

C. After the last day for nomination by petition, the Executive Committee shall certify the eligibility of each nominee. Each eligible lecturer shall be allowed to vote for four candidates. Voting shall be in accordance with Article VI, Sections 4 and 5 of the Faculty Bylaws.

D. If two or more candidates from the same College or unit have been nominated, the Executive Committee shall limit to one the number of representatives that may be elected from each College, except when there is an insufficient number of candidates from other Colleges to fill the vacant offices.

E. If a vacancy occurs in the representation of the lecturer electorate, the Executive Committee shall appoint a member of the lecturer electorate to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE X

REPRESENTATION OF THE STUDENT SERVICES ELECTORATE IN THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: Definition of the Student Services Electorate

The Student Services electorate is defined as those student services professionals (in both the Academic Affairs and Student Affairs Divisions) classified SSP III or higher. Questions regarding the interpretation of this definition shall be referred to the Executive Committee for resolution.
SECTION 2: Election of Student Services Representatives to the Academic Senate

The Student Services electorate shall elect two (2) representatives to the Academic Senate, one (1) representative to the Committee on Academic Planning and Resources, and one (1) representative to the Committee on Instruction and Curriculum. Student Services representatives shall be elected to two-year terms that commence June 15. The terms of the two Academic Senators shall be staggered. In Spring Quarter, the Executive Committee shall request the Secretary of the Academic Senate to arrange for an election to fill the vacancies to be created by expiring terms. Student Services representatives may serve two consecutive terms. The election shall be completed by May 15 and the results of the election shall be certified to the Faculty Marshal, who will announce them to the University.

SECTION 3: Vacancies in Student Services Representation

If a vacancy of more than one quarter occurs in the representation of the Student Services electorate, the Executive Committee shall request the electorate to hold a special election to fill the vacancy for the period of absence. If the vacancy is for one quarter or less, the Executive Committee may appoint a member of the electorate to fill the vacancy.

REPRESENTATION OF STAFF IN THE ACADEMIC SENATE

This has been changed to conform with 03-04 BEC 10, approved by the Senate in 03-04, as an interim procedure which will be used until an acceptable permanent procedure is adopted.

SECTION 1: Definition of Staff

Every permanent staff employee of California State University, East Bay, excluding MPP employees and anyone already represented in an electorate is eligible to serve as a Staff member representative.

SECTION 2: Selection of Staff Representative to the Academic Senate

The Senate Office shall call for self-nominations via mass email in the first week of March each year, when needed. The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate shall approve the ballot and the Academic Senate will elect a staff member from those on the ballot at its first meeting in Spring Quarter. The Staff representative shall be appointed for a two-year term, commencing June 15.

SECTION 3: Vacancies in Staff Representation

If a vacancy occurs in the Staff representation, the Executive Committee shall appoint a replacement for 1 quarter or until an election by the Senate can take place.
ARTICLE XII

2) A vacant student position with an unexpired term of less than one year shall be filled by appointment by the Associated Students Board of Directors for the remainder of the unexpired term, subject to Academic Senate approval.

D. Graduate Student defined: Any student who has classified or unclassified Graduate status.
ARTICLE XIII
LIAISON OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY

SECTION 1: Student Affairs Liaison Officer (SALO)

A. The Academic Senate shall elect for a two-year term a tenured regular faculty member to serve as Student Affairs Liaison Officer. The election shall normally take place in the year preceding the term of office.

B. The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate may nominate candidates for Student Affairs Liaison Officer. The Academic Senate may make additional nominations. A vacancy in the position shall be filled for the remainder of the two-year term by the same procedure.

C. The same person may be elected to serve additional consecutive terms.

D. The duties of the Student Affairs Liaison Officer shall be to:

1) Consult regularly with administrators who have assigned responsibilities in student affairs, with the representatives of the Associated Students, and, as appropriate, with Faculty Standing Committees about policies, activities, and issues affecting the welfare of students of the University;

2) Report regularly, as requested by the Executive Committee, to the Academic Senate on matters affecting student welfare;

3) Recommend as appropriate further review, study, or action by the Academic Senate or Executive Committee on matters affecting student welfare.

SECTION 2: Diversity & Equity Liaison Officer (DELO)

A. The Academic Senate shall elect for a two-year term a tenured regular faculty member to serve as Diversity & Equity Liaison Officer. The election shall normally take place in the year preceding the term of office.

B. The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate may nominate candidates for Diversity & Equity Liaison Officer. The Academic Senate may make additional nominations. A vacancy in the position shall be filled for the remainder of the two-year term by the same procedure.

C. The same person may be elected to serve additional consecutive terms, but having served two terms, shall not be eligible to serve as DELO again within a year. Such a member elected or appointed to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for election to two terms of his/her own, provided that no person shall serve more than five consecutive years.

D. The duties of the Diversity & Equity Liaison Officer shall be to:

1) Maintain an appropriate liaison with the faculty search committees to encourage a search in the broadest spectrum possible; consult with other administrators who have assigned responsibilities in Affirmative Action, diversity and equity issues, and as appropriate, with faculty standing... committees about policies, activities, and issues affecting faculty diversity & equity at the University;

2) Report regularly, as requested by the Executive Committee, to the Academic Senate on matters affecting diversity and equity;

3) Recommend as appropriate further review, study, or action by the Academic Senate or Executive Committee on matters affecting Diversity & Equity; and

4) Serve as a clearing-house for system wide policies and procedures concerning faculty diversity and equity at the University.

ARTICLE XIV
DUTIES OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: Delegations of Authority to the Academic Senate

The University Faculty delegates to the Academic Senate the authority to make recommendations to the President on the subjects listed in Article IV, Sections 6 and 7, of the Constitution of the University Faculty; and to administer Standing Committees of the Faculty and whatever ad hoc committees may be established.

SECTION 2: Conduct of Faculty Affairs

The Academic Senate shall speak for the University Faculty in consultation with the President, the Chancellor, and other persons and agencies, except when the University Faculty chooses to speak for itself. The Senate may designate its Executive Committee or any of its officers to carry on the consultation in specified instances.

SECTION 3: Special Summer Procedures

If the Chair of the Academic Senate is unable to obtain a quorum of the Senate in During the Summer Quarter, or where a special meeting of the Academic Senate does not obtain a quorum, the Executive Committee is authorized to act as a consultative body of the University Faculty on urgent matters. All actions of the Executive Committee shall be subject to ratification by the Academic Senate at its next meeting.

ARTICLE XV
MEETINGS OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE

SECTION 1: Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Academic Senate shall be scheduled by the Executive Committee. The Committee shall prepare a proposed agenda and distribute it along with pertinent materials before each regular meeting, as may be provided by the standing rules.
SECTION 2: Special Meetings

A special meeting may be called by the Executive Committee for the purpose of studying and acting upon urgent items of business. The Committee is required to call a special meeting when requested by the President of the University, or when petitioned by fifteen members of the Academic Senate. In the case of special meetings, any provisions for notice may be suspended.

ARTICLE XVI
THE COMMITTEE SYSTEM

SECTION 1: Representation of Colleges on Standing Committees

In the Winter Quarter of each year the Executive Committee shall allocate to each College Faculty the number of representatives on each Standing Committee of the University Faculty to which it is entitled. The allocation shall be proportional to the number of regular members in the College Faculties; except that each College shall have at least one representative on each Standing Committee.

SECTION 2: Election of College Representatives to Standing Committees

Concurrently with the election of College representatives to the Academic Senate (Article VII, Section 3) each College shall elect the number of representatives on each Standing Committee to which it is entitled. The Division of Libraries shall elect its representatives to the Committees on Instruction and Curriculum, Academic Planning and Review, Budget and Resource Allocation, and Research. Faculty members of Standing Committees shall be regular members of the University Faculty.

SECTION 3: Election of Student Services Representatives to Standing Committees

Concurrently with the election of the Student Services electorate representatives to the Academic Senate (Article X, Section 2), the Student Services electorate shall elect one representative to the Committee on Academic Planning and Review and one representative to the Committee on Instruction and Curriculum.

SECTION 4: Presidential Administrative Appointees

Before the end of the Spring Quarter, the President shall make appointments one administrator or faculty member to each committee, except the Committee on Budget and Resource Allocation, where two representatives are to be appointed, as specified in Article XVII of the Bylaws.

SECTION 5: Terms of Office

A. For Student Members of Standing Committees: Student members shall be selected for one-year terms. A student member may serve no more than two terms of one year each. A student appointed to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for two additional terms. Such a member elected or appointed to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for election to two terms of his/her own, provided that no person shall serve more than five consecutive years.
For Presidential Administrative Appointees on Standing Committees:
Presidential Administrative appointees shall be appointed for one-year terms, with no term limits.

B. For Faculty and Student Services Members of Standing Committees Other than COBRA: Faculty members and Student Services members shall be elected for two-year overlapping terms. Such members may serve consecutive terms, but having served two terms, shall not be eligible to serve again on the same committee within a year. Such a member elected or appointed to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for election to two terms of his/her own, provided that no person shall serve more than five consecutive years.

D. For Faculty Members on the Committee on Budget and Resource Allocation (COBRA): Faculty members shall be elected for two-year overlapping terms. There is no term limitation for service on COBRA.

E. Balance of Alternation: When necessary and notwithstanding provisions in Parts 3 and 4 of this Section, the Executive Committee shall provide for a balance of alternation on committees by apportioning one-, and two-year terms among the Colleges.

SECTION 6: Restriction on Committee Memberships

No person shall be a candidate for more than one Standing Committee; no elected faculty, Student Services or student member shall serve on more than one committee.

SECTION 7: Vacancies

When a vacancy occurs on a committee it shall be filled for the period of absence in the following ways:

A. A presidential Administrative appointee: The Executive Committee shall request the President appropriate administrator to appoint a replacement;

B. A faculty member: For an absence of more than one quarter, the Executive Committee shall request the College or Division Faculty to provide a replacement. For an absence of one quarter or less, the Executive Committee shall appoint a replacement member from the appropriate College or Division;

C. A Student Services member: The Executive Committee shall request the Vice President of Student Services University Administration to provide for the selection of a qualified replacement by a method to be determined by the Student Services electorate;

D. A student member: The Executive Committee shall request the President of the Associated Students to provide for the selection of a qualified student replacement by a method to be determined by the Associated Student Body President and Board of Directors Council.

SECTION 8: Termination of Membership

A. The Executive Committee may terminate the service of any member of committee or subcommittee whose continuance is deemed by a majority of the entire membership of the committee to interfere with the orderly conduct of
B. Ordinarily, any member of a committee or subcommittee or the Senate itself, who is absent three (3) times in a quarter two (2) consecutive meetings or absent four (4) times in one year, shall be terminated from service on the committee or subcommittee. The committee chair shall confer with such a member concerning his/her resignation and report the circumstances to the Executive Committee.

SECTION 9: Responsibilities of the Chair

A. Each committee shall elect a Chair from among the elected regular faculty representatives whose principal function shall be to organize the business of the committee and to preside at its meetings. The Chair of each committee shall be a voting member, representing his/her committee in the Academic Senate. The Chairs shall be elected regular faculty members and shall serve a one-year term, with encouragement to the COBRA Chair to serve more than one year.

B. At the end of each academic year, the Chair shall report to the Academic Senate concerning actions taken during the year and any unfinished business.

SECTION 10: Committee Procedures

Each committee shall, with the approval of the Executive Committee, establish procedures for the conduct of its business. Only the Committees on Faculty Affairs and Research and their subcommittees may establish procedures containing provisions for closed meetings.

SECTION 11: Regular Subcommittees

With the consent of the Executive Committee any committee may establish regular subcommittees. These shall report to the committee. The Chair shall appoint the members of subcommittees annually, in consultation with the whole committee and subject to the approval of the Executive Committee. At least one member of each subcommittee shall be an elected faculty member of the committee, with the exception of the Graduate Programs Subcommittee of CIC, on which the Presidential Appointee to CIC may serve rather than an elected faculty member; other members may be drawn from any segment of the University community, except that only faculty members may serve on subcommittees that deal with faculty personnel matters. Members of subcommittees shall be chosen with a view of their special acquaintance with the subjects within the purview of the subcommittee.

SECTION 12: Special Subcommittees

A. In consultation with the committee, the Chair may establish special subcommittees; and he/she may, with the approval of the Executive Committee, appoint persons who are not members of the committee.

B. Special subcommittees shall go out of existence at the end of the academic year, or be renewed with the approval of the Executive Committee.
SECTION 13: Committee Reports

The Chair of each committee shall transmit its recommendations and shall report the results of its consultation to the Executive Committee in the form and manner prescribed by the Standing Rules of the Academic Senate. In those instances in which a committee is authorized to report directly to the President or other administrator, when recommending a policy matter, the report shall first be placed on the agenda of the Senate, as provided for in the Standing Rules. When recommending specific personnel actions, the report need not be so placed on the agenda.
