TO: The Executive Committee
FROM: James Murray, Chair, Faculty Affairs Committee
SUBJECT: 18-19 FAC 3: Approval of revisions to FAC policies and procedures
PURPOSE: Inform Excom that FAC has approved revisions to the policies and procedures for the Faculty Affairs Committee, effective upon approval
ACTION REQUESTED: Approval from Excom

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

In AY 17-18 and Fall 2018 the Faculty Affairs Committee received suggested changes of policies and procedures from the members of the Awards Subcommittee to improve and clarify procedures, and to append a calendar of events and deadlines. In addition, we updated the document to gender-neutral language.

1. Preamble: Changed ‘Appendix’ to “Appendix A” to distinguish from new Appendix B.
4. Article V, Section 7, part B 2): Convened the Awards subcommittee before March 1 to ensure the awards are determined well before the end of the semester.
5. Article V, Section 7, part B 3): Changed “Scholarship Week” to “Week of Scholarship” to follow existing practice. Added Sue Schaefer Faculty Service Award to list of awards.
6. Article V, Section 7, part B 4): Refer to new Appendix B, which lists all of the dates for calls, submissions, and committee meeting deadlines. Deleted 4a and 4b that referred to dates in Winter quarter.
7. Article V, Section 7, part B 5): Clarified language regarding which criteria are used to evaluate applications.
8. Article V, Section 7, part B 11): Changed “Scholarship Week” to “Week of Scholarship” to follow existing practice.
9. Article V, Section 7, part D: Corrected to read “Evaluation of Teaching”.
10. Article XVI: Replaced old bylaws excerpt with revised bylaws excerpt.
11. Added Appendix B “TIMELINE AND GUIDELINES FOR AWARDS SUBCOMMITTEE” to make it easier to see deadlines and to know the process by which the applications are evaluated and the winners are communicated.

As authorized by Article XVI, Section 10 of the Bylaws of the University Faculty, approved February 1971 and revised 8/99, these policies and procedures for the conduct of its operations shall be established on adoption by the majority vote of the members present of the Faculty Affairs Committee and approval by the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate. The committee is governed first and foremost by the Bylaws. The Bylaws articles regarding committee operation and this committee specifically are included in the Appendix A.

ARTICLE I
Membership

Section 1:
In accordance with Article XVI, Section 3.C of the Bylaws of the University Faculty, the membership of the Faculty Affairs Committee shall be: eight (8) tenured members from the Colleges of the University; one (1) tenured member of the Library Faculty; and one (1) appointee of the President of the University.

Section 2:
When an elected member of the Committee has been absent without explanation from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Committee that person shall be asked to submit a resignation in order that the position be filled. If he/she refuses to do so, the Committee by a two-thirds vote may 2 The nine members will be allocated proportionally to the number of regular faculty as detailed in the senate bylaws Article XVI, Section 1.

declare the position vacant and request that the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate initiate procedures to provide a replacement.

ARTICLE II

Officers

Section 1:
Responsibility for the conduct of the affairs of the Committee is vested in its Chair and its Secretary, elected annually at its organizational meeting in late Spring by the newly elected and continuing members. Effective conduct of the affairs of the Committee requires the joint effort of its officers and all regular members, based upon the principle of full and open communication.

Section 2:
The Chair of the Committee shall preside over the meetings of the Committee. The Chair shall be an ex officio member of all regular and special subcommittees of the Committee. At the end of each academic year, the Chair (with the assistance of the Secretary) shall report to the Academic Senate concerning actions taken during the year and any unfinished business.3

Section 3:
In the absence or disability of the Committee Chair, the Committee shall be represented by the Committee Secretary, who shall preside until the return of the Committee Chair or the election of a new Chair. When the Secretary presides, a Secretary pro-temp is elected from the remaining committee members. In the absence or disability of both the Committee Chair and the Committee Secretary, the Committee may elect a Chair and Secretary pro-tem for a specific meeting.

ARTICLE III

Duties

Section 1:
In accordance with Article XVII, Section 3 of the Bylaws of the University faculty, the duties of the Committee are:

1. To make policy recommendations concerning:

a. Professional activities of the University Faculty;

b. The financial support of such activities;

c. The welfare, rights, privileges and responsibilities of the University Faculty;

d. Appointment, retention, tenure, promotion and other peer review processes;

e. Professional ethics and disciplinary procedures;

f. Faculty consultation in the appointment and review of administrative personnel in positions affecting the University Faculty;

g. The granting of awards and honors to members of the University Faculty;

h. The conferring of Emeritus/a status.

3 The third sentence of Article II, Section 2 may not be changed without a vote of the entire faculty
4 Article III, Section 1 may not be changed without a vote of the entire faculty
2. To consult, when appropriate, with administrators who have assigned responsibilities for faculty affairs and report periodically the nature of this consultation to the Executive Committee; and

3. To consult, when appropriate, with other Standing Committees.

ARTICLE IV
Meetings

Section 1: Time and Place
The regular meetings of the Committee shall be 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm on the first and third Wednesdays of each month during the academic year at a place to be designated by the Chair, in consultation with the staff of the Office of the Academic Senate.

Section 2: Quorum
Two-thirds of the current membership of the Committee (excluding the Presidential Appointee) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at its meetings.

Section 3: Minutes
Minutes will be taken by the Committee Secretary and distributed in the manner prescribed by the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate.

Section 4: Closed Meetings
Meetings of the Committee or its sub-committees may be closed to visitors during deliberations on personnel matters. Such closure shall be determined by the Chair, who shall indicate in the published agenda whether the meeting or a portion of it is to be closed.

Section 5: Order of Business
The order of business at regular meetings of the Committee shall be:

1) Approval of the agenda for the meeting
2) Approval of the minutes for the previous meeting
3) Report of the Chair
4) Report of the Presidential Appointee
5) Report of the Subcommittees
6) Items of business
7) Adjournment

Items may be added to the agenda from the floor of the Committee by a two-thirds majority vote of the members present. If the Chair determines that such additions give cause for the deliberations to be closed, the Chair shall so announce before the items are taken up.

Section 6: Agenda

1) The Chair of the Committee will prepare agendas from items submitted to the Chair from other members of the Committee and/or the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate.
2) Agendas will be circulated to the Committee membership within a reasonable amount of time prior to scheduled meetings, and posted online to the Committee webpage.

Section 7: Voting

1) Motions made on the floor of the Committee shall be written (this may be done by the Secretary) and read to the Committee prior to the vote.

2) Bylaw V.3 of the University Faculty shall apply to voting by this committee.

3) Those eligible to vote are the tenured, regular faculty elected to the Committee and the Presidential Appointee. Besides the Presidential Appointee, no person serving on the Committee, not elected by the faculty (or by the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate as a temporary replacement), is eligible to vote.

ARTICLE V
Subcommittees

Section 1:
All regular (voting) members of the Committee are expected to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Committee by full and effective participation as members of regular and special subcommittees.

Section 2:
The Chair of the Committee shall appoint the members of subcommittees annually, in consultation with the whole Committee and subject to the approval of the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate. At least one member of each subcommittee shall be an elected member of the Committee; other members may be drawn from any segment of the University Community. Members of subcommittees shall be chosen with a view of their special acquaintance with the subjects within the purview of the subcommittee.

Section 3:
In consultation with the Committee, the Chair may establish special subcommittees; and the Chair may with the approval of the Executive Committee, appoint persons who are not members of the Committee. Special subcommittees shall go out of existence at the end of the academic year.

Section 4:
Each regular and special subcommittee shall elect its own chair and shall designate one of its members as reporter to the Faculty Affairs Committee. The chair of a regular subcommittee must be a member of the faculty.

5 The sentences before the semicolon in Article V, Section 2, may not be changed without a vote of the entire faculty
6 Article V, Section 3 may not be changed without a vote of the entire faculty
Section 5:
Each regular and special subcommittee reports directly to the Faculty Affairs Committee. Unless provided for otherwise in these procedures, the Committee may amend or refer back to subcommittee any recommendation of a subcommittee.

Section 6: Regular Subcommittees
The regular subcommittees of the Faculty Affairs Committee are:

1) Retention, Tenure, and Promotion Policy and Procedures Subcommittee
2) Outstanding Professor/Scholarship Week Faculty Awards Subcommittee
3) Subcommittee on Lecturers
4) Subcommittee on Evaluations of Teaching

Section 7: Procedures of the Regular Subcommittees

ARTICLE VI
Amendment and Suspension of these Policies and Procedures

Section 1:
The Committee shall take final action on proposed amendments, or on proposed new policies and procedures, or on repeal of these policies and procedures only at its regular meetings.

Section 2:
Policies and procedures may be added to, amended, or repealed in whole or part, if approved by a two-thirds vote of all the voting members of the Committee, and by the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate.

Section 3:
All modifications of existing policies and procedures, and all newly-enacted policies and procedures shall become effective upon approval of the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate unless a later date has been explicitly stated and accepted.

Section 4:
The Committee shall adopt or amend these policies and procedures as the first item of business at the first meeting of the academic year. After the policies and procedures are approved by the Executive Committee, they shall be posted prominently on the webpage for the Committee’s meetings.

ARTICLE VII
Parliamentary Authority

Questions of order not covered by these Policies and Procedures shall be covered by Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised.
EXCERPTS FROM THE BYLAWS OF THE CSUEB FACULTY

ARTICLE XVI

THE COMMITTEE SYSTEM

SECTION 1: Representation of Colleges on Standing Committees

Early in the Spring Semester of each year the Executive Committee shall allocate to each College Faculty the number of representatives on each Standing Committee of the University Faculty to which it is entitled. The allocation shall be proportional to the number of regular members in the College Faculties; except that each College shall have at least one representative on each Standing Committee.

SECTION 2: Election of College Representatives to Standing Committees

Concurrently with the election of College representatives to the Academic Senate (Article VII, Section 3) each College and the University Libraries shall elect the number of representatives on each Standing Committee to which it is entitled. Those faculty members of Standing Committees who are elected as College representatives or Library representatives must be regular members of the University Faculty.

SECTION 3: Election of Student Services Representatives to Standing Committees

Concurrently with the election of the Student Services electorate representatives to the Academic Senate (Article X, Section 2), the Student Services electorate shall elect one representative to the Committee on Academic Planning and Review and one representative to the Committee on Instruction and Curriculum.

SECTION 4: Election of Lecturer Representatives to Standing Committees

Concurrently with the election of the lecturer electorate representatives to the Academic Senate (Article IX, Section 2), the lecturer electorate shall elect one representative from among the lecturer electorate to the Committee on Academic Planning and Review, one representative to the Committee on Instruction and Curriculum, one representative to the Committee on Research, and one representative to the Committee on Faculty Diversity & Equity.

SECTION 5: Presidential Appointees

Before the end of the Spring Semester, the President shall appoint one administrator or faculty member to each committee, except the Committee on Budget and Resource Allocation, where two representatives are to be appointed.

SECTION 6: Terms of Office

A. For Student Members of Standing Committees: Student members shall be selected for one-year terms. A student member may serve no more than two terms of one year each. A student appointed to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for two additional terms.

B. For Lecturer Members of Standing Committees: Lecturer members shall be selected for one-year terms. Such members may serve consecutive terms, but having served four terms, shall not be eligible to serve again on the same committee within a year. A lecturer appointed to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for election to four terms of his/her own, provided that no person shall serve more than five consecutive years. If a lecturer is appointed to the Faculty Diversity and Equity Committee as a faculty member with expertise in Ethnic Studies or a faculty member with expertise in Women’s Studies, s/he will be selected for a two-year term (See Article XVII, Section 6, B2 and B3).

C. For Presidential Appointees on Standing Committees: Presidential appointees shall be appointed for one-year terms.

D. For College Faculty and Student Services Members of Standing Committees Other than COBRA: College Faculty members and Student Services members shall be elected for two-year overlapping terms. Such members may serve consecutive terms, but having served two terms, shall not be eligible to serve again on the same committee within a year. Such a member elected or appointed to serve out the unexpired term of another shall be eligible for election to two terms of their own, provided that no person shall serve more than five consecutive years.

E. For College Faculty Members on the Committee on Budget and Resource Allocation (COBRA): College Faculty members shall be elected for two-year overlapping terms. There is no term limitation for service on COBRA.

F. Balance of Alternation: When necessary and notwithstanding provisions in Parts 3 and 4 of this Section, the Executive Committee shall provide for a balance of alternation on committees by apportioning one-, and two-year terms among the Colleges.

SECTION 7: Restriction on Committee Memberships

No person shall be a candidate for more than one Standing Committee; no elected faculty, Student Services or student member shall serve on more than one committee.

SECTION 8: Vacancies

When a vacancy occurs on a committee it shall be filled for the period of absence in the following ways:

A. A presidential appointee: The Executive Committee shall request the President to appoint a replacement;

B. A College faculty member: For an absence of more than one semester, the Executive Committee shall request the College or University Library Faculty to provide a replacement. For an absence of one semester or less, the Executive Committee shall appoint a replacement member from the appropriate College or University Library;

C. A Student Services member: The Executive Committee shall request the Vice President of Student Services to provide for the selection of a qualified replacement by a method to be determined by the Student Services electorate;

D. A student member: The Executive Committee shall request the President of the Associated Students to provide for the selection of a qualified student replacement by a method to be determined by the Associated Student Body President and Council.

E. A lecturer member: The Executive Committee shall appoint a member of the lecturer electorate to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.

SECTION 9: Termination of Membership

A. The Executive Committee may terminate the service of any member of committee or subcommittee whose continuance is deemed by a majority of the entire membership of the committee to interfere with the orderly conduct of business.

B. Ordinarily, any member of a committee or subcommittee who is absent three (3) times in a semester shall be terminated from service on the committee or subcommittee. The committee chair shall confer with such a member concerning their resignation and report the circumstances to the Executive Committee.

SECTION 10: Responsibilities of the Chair

A. Each committee shall elect a Chair from among the elected faculty representatives whose principal function shall be to organize the business of the committee and to preside at its meetings. The Chair of each committee shall be a voting member, representing their committee in the Academic Senate. The Chairs shall be elected faculty members and shall serve a one-year term, with encouragement to the COBRA Chair to serve more than one year.

B. At the end of each academic year, the Chair shall report to the Academic Senate concerning actions taken during the year and any unfinished business.

SECTION 11: Committee Procedures

Each committee shall, with the approval of the Executive Committee, establish procedures for the conduct of its business. Only the Committees on Faculty Affairs and Research and their subcommittees may establish procedures containing provisions for closed meetings.

SECTION 12: Regular Subcommittees

With the consent of the Executive Committee any committee may establish regular subcommittees. These shall report to the committee. The Chair shall appoint the members of subcommittees annually, in consultation with the whole committee and subject to the approval of the Executive Committee. At least one member of each subcommittee shall be an elected faculty member of the committee, with the exception of the Graduate Programs Subcommittee of CIC, on which the Presidential Appointee to CIC may serve rather than an elected faculty member; other members may be drawn from any segment of the University community, except that only faculty members may serve on subcommittees that deal with faculty personnel matters. Members of subcommittees shall be chosen with a view of their special acquaintance with the subjects within the purview of the subcommittee.

SECTION 13: Special Subcommittees

A. In consultation with the committee, the Chair may establish special subcommittees; and they may, with the approval of the Executive Committee, appoint persons who are not members of the committee.

B. Special subcommittees shall go out of existence at the end of the academic year.

SECTION 14: Committee Reports

The Chair of each committee shall transmit its recommendations and shall report the results of its consultation to the Executive Committee in the form and manner prescribed by the Standing Rules of the Academic Senate. In those instances in which a committee is authorized to report directly to the President, when recommending a policy matter, the report shall first be placed on the agenda of the Senate, as provided for in the Standing Rules. When recommending specific personnel actions, the report need not be so placed on the agenda.

ARTICLE XVII
THE STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE UNIVERSITY FACULTY

SECTION 3: Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC)

Duties of the Committee:

1) To make policy recommendations concerning:
   a. Professional activities of the University faculty;
   b. The financial support of such activities;
   c. The welfare, rights, privileges, and responsibilities of the University Faculty;
   d. Appointment, retention, tenure, promotion, and other peer review processes;
   e. Professional ethics and disciplinary procedures;
   f. Faculty consultation in the appointment and review of administrative personnel in positions affecting the University Faculty;
   g. The granting of awards and honors to members of the University Faculty; and
   h. The conferring of Emeriti status.

2) To consult, when appropriate, with administrators who have assigned responsibilities for faculty affairs and report periodically the nature of this consultation to the Executive Committee; and
3) To consult, when appropriate, with other Standing Committees.

Special Procedures for Recommendations

The Faculty Affairs Committee shall recommend as follows:

1) Directly to the Vice President, Academic Affairs, concerning candidates for Distinguished Visiting Professorships, and

2) To the Academic Senate any action not specifically mentioned above.

Membership

The membership of the Faculty Affairs Committee shall be

1) Eight (8) tenured members from the Colleges of the University;

2) One (1) tenured member of the University Libraries Faculty; and

3) One (1) appointee of the President of the University.
