

Summary of Actions from the Senate Meeting of March 11, 2014

Passed Action Items
13-14 CIC 14	Add/drop dates for 5 week classes
13-14 FAC 2	Revised Proposed Faculty Awards
13-14 BEC 8 revised	Uniformity of Elections Policy ( first reading waived )
13-14 FAC 1	Interpretation of Rules on Quorum ( first reading waived )
Information Items
13-14 BEC 13	Determination of Evaluations for Winter Quarter, 2014
Reports
Chair	Chair Watnik had earlier emailed his written report to the Academic Senate.
President	President Morishita absent; no report.
Provost	Provost Houpis absent; no report.
Statewide Academic Senators	Vice Chair Barrett read the following message to the Senate: "ASCSU will meet in Committees and Plenary next week. Senators Gubernat and Fleming ask that Senators forward any questions or feedback on pending ASCSU resolutions to us by Monday of next week."
Student Government	ASI President Michelle Xiong resigned as a result of being hired by the University; Student Rep Gaozong Yang presented a written report which noted that ASI wrote a semester conversion resolution and would be voting on an academic advising resolution the following day.
CFA	CFA Chapter President Eagan reported on the successful CFA Equity Conference held in Los Angeles the previous weekend. East Bay faculty attendees included Jennifer Eagan, Kim Geron, Shirley Yap, Barbara Hall, and Steven Cleveland. CSULA Professor Melina Abdullah will speak at East Bay next quarter. Faculty are encouraged to join a March 14 rally in support of Hayward workers. In support of bargaining, a 100-day countdown to the end of the current contract begins March 23.