OFFICE of the
ACADEMIC SENATE

February 11, 2010

TO: The University Community

FROM: Dee Andrews, Chair, Faculty Affairs Committee

SUBJECT: Nominations for 2009-10 Outstanding Professor

The selection of an Outstanding Professor at Cal State East Bay each year is made by a special subcommittee of the Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC). The successful candidate receives the George and Miriam Phillips Outstanding Professor Award of $1,000.

Faculty members interested in competing for the award, or members of the university community interested in recommending others, should notify the Office of the Academic Senate in writing as soon as possible, but no later than March 11, 2010.

Each nominee shall then be notified of his or her nomination for the award. Candidates must submit supporting evidence to the Senate Office by noon on Friday, April 2, 2010. Helpful evidence may include (a) a full curriculum vitae, (b) documentation of teaching accomplishments, including student course evaluations, (c) documentation of professional achievement, (d) documentation of service to the campus and community, and (e) any other material deemed relevant in support of the nomination. Evidence may also include written statements, which are both descriptive and evaluative, by present and former students, colleagues in the nominees academic discipline, campus administrators, and others who are qualified to comment upon the nominees teaching and related contributions.

For additional information you may contact me at dee.andrews@csueastbay.edu, the Senate Chair at senatechair@csueastbay.edu, or Susan Correia, Faculty Government Coordinator, at susan.correia@csueastbay.edu or extension 5-3671.

Lastly, we hope you will be able to attend the Faculty Honors Convocation on March 11th to honor LAST year’s Outstanding Professor, Sue Opp, as well as the newly tenured and faculty who recently received 25 year or emeritus status. (The (new) 09-10 Outstanding Professor will be announced in May 2010.)

Departments- Please post in a place where lecturers, students, and staff may read this. ALL are welcome to nominate a faculty member for this award.
