Overview

AllSeated is a rapidly growing venture-backed company with best-in-class products for event planning and layouts. We are changing the game in our industry sector by leveraging 3D and Virtual Reality technology to provide vivid visualization of setups and venue settings. We have thousands of customers representing both small businesses all the way up to enterprise, and there’s significant market opportunity ahead!

To help fuel our next phase of growth, we are looking for a tech-savvy Intern to assist our San Francisco office on marketing, customer success, customer support and whatever else is needed. If you are self-motivated, thrive in fast-paced unstructured environments, and would like to be part of a team that is building a great company, let’s talk!

Intern Directives

- Work with our marketing department and assist with various marketing automation tools such as email marketing, User Journey, and CRM
- Analyze sales and marketing data for actionable recommendations
- Compile reports and present findings to management
- Assist with new user onboarding

What you bring to the team

- An attitude where no challenge is too great
- Fast learner of technology
- Attentiveness to details and advanced listening skills
- Ability to work effectively across functions and geographies, and to get stuff done
- Strong written and verbal communication abilities

Benefits

- Paid internship (Hourly)
- Flexible work schedule
- Intimate work environment where you are part of the team
- Horizontal organization where performance matters much more than title
