The City of Pleasanton Library and Recreation Department is currently recruiting part-time employees for the Recreation for Adults with Developmental Disabilities (RADD) Program. This dynamic recreation program is designed for people ages 15 and above with developmental disabilities. RADD’s mission is to provide equal opportunity for personal growth for individuals with developmental disabilities through recreational activities and community involvement. Most activities take place on Friday evenings or on Saturdays for 4-6 hours. Activities include dances, movies, concerts, and more. For a list of our spring programs, please click here.

The positions:

- Seasonal Senior Recreation Leader – RADD
  - Responsibilities include assigning tasks to program support staff and volunteers, creating program schedule, obtaining activity supplies and materials, ensuring activity set-up and clean-up, assisting the Recreation Coordinator with staffing, program participation and evaluations, and working directly with participants and families.
  - Typical hours: Monday-Friday, some evenings and weekends. Approximately 25-30 hours per week.

- Recreation Leader III – RADD
  - Serves in a lead role during events, trips and special activities both on-site and out in the community for the Recreation for Adults with Developmental Disabilities (RADD) Program.
  - Typical hours: Friday evenings or Saturdays. Approximately 4-6 hours, 2-3 times per month.
