Please see below for more information:

Are you a people person? Do you enjoy talking to people from all walks of life, and from all over the world? Do you love San Francisco and all that is had to offer? If the answer is yes. . . . then being a concierge, at one of our hotel concierge desks or in our busy visitor center might be the perfect job for you.

We are looking for personalities, not just people. If you are outgoing, customer service driven, friendly, a great communicator, reliable, professional and have some sales experience, this could be the career you have been waiting for.

The travel and hospitality industry is a fun, exciting place to work in San Francisco. With hard work, you can thrive in this environment and become a seasoned concierge, or use this as a stepping-stone into other roles in the industry.

* An enthusiasm for San Francisco and an understanding of neighborhoods, tours, attractions, things to see and do.

* Sound knowledge of the public transportation options to get around the city.

* Excellent customer service skills.

* You are a strong communicator -- verbal and written. If you know more than one language it's a plus.

* Computer literacy -- MS office, email, internet search.

* Good organizational skills, attention to detail, and the ability to multitask.

* Strong sales skills.

* A team player that can work well under pressure.

* Have a flexible schedule including weekends and holidays. 4 hour and 8 hour shifts available at various locations

A criminal background check will be conducted before the final hire.
