To All Faculty:

Faculty Travel to a Non-Home Campus

November 19, 2011; DUE December 19, 2012

INTRODUCTION:
CSU East Bay has recently settled a Chapter grievance with the CFA regarding travel by faculty to other locations. There are two parts to this settlement. Please read both parts.

Part I—Travel for the period Fall 2011-Fall 2012

1. To whom does this faculty travel reimbursement apply? To all regular and temporary faculty employed by CSU East Bay in Fall 2011-Fall 2012 who have not already been reimbursed for travel to and from a second campus or site. (i.e. who travelled to Concord to teach, if the majority of their work was done in Hayward)

2. How do I get reimbursed?

   A. For travel completed in Fall 2011, Winter 2012, Spring 2012, Summer 2012, and/or Fall 2012 please file a travel expense claim form within 30 days of this notice. The travel expense claim form is available at: www20.csueastbay.edu/af/departments/finance/procurement/accounts-payable/travel/forms/

   B. The form(s) may be sent electronically or in paper format to your Associate Dean. The Associate Deans are:
      • Alan.monat@csueastbay.edu (Science)
      • Xinjian.Lu@csueastbay.edu (Business)
      • James.zarrillo@csueastbay.edu (Education)
      • Rafael.hernandez@csueastbay.edu (CLASS)

   C. Reimbursement is at $.50 per mile. You need to put your license plate number on the form.

   D. Forms are due to the Associate Deans by December 19, 2012

3. How do I determine my mileage?

   Step A. Determine where the majority of your work was performed for that quarter. That is your home campus. If your home campus is: -Hayward, you may be reimbursed for travel to and from Concord or Oakland or another site -Concord, you may be reimbursed for travel to and from Hayward or Oakland or another site -If you taught 2 courses, one at Hayward and one at Concord. One will be reimbursable.

Step B. Print out a MapQuest or other computer generated calculation of the mileage from your home to the non-home campus.

Step C. You are entitled to mileage based on your starting point: See chart in Attachment A.

Step D. Please fill in a travel reimbursement form for each quarter, attach the MapQuest (or other) mileage documentation and submit the form(s) to your Associate Dean. This may be done by email, mail, or in person.

4. Examples:

A. A faculty member, who lives in Concord, does the majority of her work in Hayward but 2 times a week she travels to Concord campus. Can she be reimbursed? Yes. Starting at her home and going to the Concord campus is reimbursable, as is going home from the Concord campus.

B. A faculty member does the majority of his work at Hayward. He is asked to attend a meeting once a month in Concord, is this reimbursable? Yes. He can be reimbursed for the mileage from Hayward to Concord and back or back to his/her house (whichever is less)

C. What about travel to other sites? This is also reimbursable but must be documented.

5. Why are we paying at this time? What if there are other questions?

A. This is the result of a settlement with the CFA; it is in compliance with the CSU’s travel policy.

B. Please contact the Associate Dean of your college if there are other questions.

6. Attachments:

A. Attachment A (Note: Attachment A says it is applicable from September 19- November 6, we are applying the settlement for all of Fall Quarter; the definitions in the Chart apply to all such travel in future quarters)

B. CSU East Bay Travel Form

Part II: For Travel to a second campus location for Winter 2013 onward

1. The same travel rules will apply BUT:
A. You must have taken the Defensive Driving course. The course is located at https://adhayweb13.csueastbay.edu/wsapps/masterynet/

C. You must submit your travel claim form with an ink signature in a timely manner to your department secretary on either a monthly or quarterly basis.

2. Note: there are no exceptions to the above on travel that is not part of the retroactive settlement (Part I); so please take care of the course, fill in the private vehicle form, and supply the reimbursement request, with a “wet” signature in a timely manner. The University will be checking your DMV record.

3. Please remember that you will need to put your license plate number on the reimbursement form.

4. The CSU East Bay Travel Policy is located at http://www20.csueastbay.edu/af/departments/finance/procurement/accounts-payable/travel/policies/

Re: Mileage reimbursement for travel to and from locations other than the home campus

Please be advised that CSU East Bay faculty unit employees who are assigned to perform work at a location other than their home campus (non-home campus), as defined by CSU Travel Procedures and Regulations (C. Automobile – 1. Allowable Mileage Expense)(“CSU TRAVEL POLICY”), which does not require an overnight stay and has not been previously reimbursed, shall be eligible for mileage reimbursement from September 19, 2011 to November 6, 2012 upon request in the following manner:

<table>
