TACO BELL

Suggested Vegan Menu Items
- Bean Burrito How to order it: No cheese, add potatoes & rice. Try guacamole on the side. Or, you can say, “Fresco Style,” which means they remove the cheese & sauce and replace it with pico de gallo—yum! Try it with black beans.
- Seven-Layer Burrito How to order it: Remove the sour cream and cheese, add pico de gallo. Add red sauce for a spicy kick.
- Taco Salad How to order it: Substitute beef for beans (they don’t charge for this, woo!), remove the sour cream & cheese, and add rice, potatoes, guacamole and red sauce.
- Mexican Pizza How to order it: OK, this one can be a bit trickier. Substitute beef for beans & remove the cheese.
- Fresco Bean Burrito
- Veggie Cantina Burrito How to order: Remove the Cilantro Dressing.
- Veggie Cantina Bowl How to order: Remove the Cilantro Dressing.

Suggested Vegetarian Menu Items
- All of the above menu items with Cheese and Sour Cream.

VEGAN VS. VEGETARIAN

Vegans do not consume meat, eggs, milk, honey or any food that is derived from animals.

Vegetarians do not eat meat or fish. Some do consume dairy and some vegetarians consume eggs.

NUTRITIONAL F.A.Q.

Do I need to worry about getting enough protein?
- No. Protein deficiency is very rare, even in full-time vegetarians. As long as you’re eating enough calories to maintain a healthy weight, and following the USDA’s healthy dietary guidelines you’re almost certain to get enough protein.

Should I avoid exercising if I’m not eating meat?
- There’s no need to avoid exercise on even a full vegetarian diet. A healthy meatless diet will provide more than enough energy, protein and other nutrients to fuel all of your usual activities including your workouts.
