ORSP is pleased to host:
“Funding Opportunities for University Programs” Workshop

Presenter: Richard Dunfee, Director of Grants Resource Center in Washington, D.C.

Wednesday, October 14, 2009
10am – 3pm
LI 2250 (Presentation Conference Center)

RSVP to anne.wing@csueastbay.edu or call 510-885-4212 by October 13. (Lunch provided for participants who sign up in advance)

AGENDA:

10:00am
- Introduction of the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP) Staff
- Introduction of Special Guest, Richard Dunfee (Grants Resource Center in Washington, D.C.)

10:15 – 12:00pm
- Funding Overview from the perspective of the Grants Resource Center
- Overview of the Funding Opportunities of the Obama Administration; including an update on Recovery Act funding
- Overview on Health Informatics and Comparative Effectiveness (Interdisciplinary) Funding Opportunities; including opportunities from National Institutes of Health

12:00pm – 12:30pm: Lunch

12:30 – 2:30pm
- Funding opportunities in the STEM Fields; including funding notices from National Science Foundation and the U.S. Dept of Energy
- Funding in Environmental, Sustainability, and Energy Fields
- Opportunities in the humanities and the arts

2:30 – 3pm
- Questions