Taekwondo Students Get Their Kicks From Martial Art

By Gloria Lau

Staff Writer

Magazines being in a class where you can hit stuff out of the box, take out all our aggression, be loud, kick and punch—oh my gosh, which you are swarmed for your fighting spirit. That... KT, TKE, 1018 (Taekwondo) is all about.

In addition to being a recognized part of the CSUEB community, Taekwondo has been around in the Bay Area since 1971. Today, the group continues to embrace the discipline and values associated with martial arts.

Awards Ceremony

The group recently held an awards ceremony to recognize the achievements of its members. The ceremony was held at the University Union on April 25.

Taekwondo-President

Linda Rall, president of the Taekwondo team, said the ceremony was a way to recognize the hard work and dedication of the team members.

Taekwondo-Vice President

Scott Silver, vice president of the team, added that the ceremony was a way to thank the coaches and mentors who have supported the team throughout the year.

Taekwondo-Members

The Taekwondo team is made up of students from different majors and backgrounds, and it provides a sense of community and support among its members.

Taekwondo-Chairman

Michael Miranda, chairman of the Taekwondo team, expressed his gratitude for the support and encouragement he received from his coaches and mentors.

Taekwondo-Member

Leslie Wong, a member of the Taekwondo team, said the ceremony was a way to celebrate the hard work and dedication of the team members.

Taekwondo-Member

Julie Kim, another member of the team, added that the ceremony was a way to thank the coaches and mentors who have supported the team throughout the year.

Taekwondo-Member

Dave Lee, a member of the team, said the ceremony was a way to celebrate the hard work and dedication of the team members.
