Co-Curricular and Student Support (CCSS) Subcommittee of Semester Conversion

CCSS Subcommittee Charge and Membership

The mission of the Co-Curricular and Student Support Subcommittee is to assist non-academic programs and services in assessing and addressing potential problems or challenges faced as a result of semester conversion.

- Clarify ambiguity about the process and coordinate staff training to address student questions and concerns regarding the transition;
- Ensure continuation of programming, services, and activities with little disruption to students;
- Identify and help programs, services and events that will be affected by calendar changes to make necessary changes;
- Assist necessary changes to students housing;
- Work to preserve school traditions (athletics, Al Fresco, etc.) on the semester calendar.
- Confirm that PeopleSoft application data that is currently scheduled for regular downloads will continue to be shared across third party systems on a new timeline
