

How Does Service Learning Fit Into The Job Market?

Students participating in a service learning class gain valuable skills and experience that can help build a career in nearly any sector of society and students use their experience as a foundation for successful careers in a variety of areas. Your experience increases your marketability to employers.

District Police Officer

Job Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Investigative techniques and procedures. • Demonstrated ability to work with persons of diverse socioeconomic, cultural, disability, and ethnic backgrounds. • Demonstrate commitment to the increased understanding of, sensitivity to, and respect for all cultural groups, women, and the disabled. • Assess public safety or enforcement situations and determine appropriate course of action. • Review and recall necessary information. • Prepare clear and concise reports. • Establish and maintain cooperation/working relationships with students, staff and the public. • Communicate orally including giving verbal assistance • Conducts public relations activities such as making presentations to community groups, student groups, staff & administrative groups, working with public agencies, delivering death notices & emergency messages, etc. • Responsible for mediating and crowd control; provides general assistance to the public. • Generates, processes, and maintains written information using a variety of office equipment and computers. 	Service Learning Links <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Community partners involved in the service learning program provide services to a wide range of ethnicities, cultures, socioeconomic levels, and family structures. • Students work in cooperation with other volunteers, staff, and the public. • Students communicate orally with clientele and give assistance • Students may give presentations or teach lessons to clientele Spotlight on a Partner JusticeCorps - Provide direct service to court users who cannot afford attorneys. This includes help with forms, providing legal information, and referrals.
---	--

Nurse Practitioner/Physician Assistant/Registered Nurse - HIV Case Manager for Non-Profit, Community Clinic

Job Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work as a team member with HIV Medical Provider, Peer Advocate, HIV Substance Abuse Case Manager, and other HIV services staff in providing services. • Provide phone, appointment, and drop-in triage to all HIV-positive patients and 	Service Learning Links <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There are many opportunities for students to work in a community health care program. • Community partners involved in the service learning program provide services to a wide range of ethnicities, cultures, socioeconomic levels, and family structures.
---	---

support the HIV clinician in providing care and treatment. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keeping close communication with the HIV clinician • Diligent and careful documentation • Coordinate medical, dental, and mental health referrals internally and/or with external providers • Conduct as assigned, intake interviews and client assessments to develop appropriate interventions and service plans for clients. This includes completing all necessary documents/forms. • Attend scheduled department staff meetings, medical staff meetings and patient case conferences with the HIV services staff. • Maintain patient confidentiality • Reach sound conclusions and make appropriate recommendations. • Ability to work both independently and as part of the medical team. Ability to work well under pressure, analyze and evaluate clients' situations, • Knowledge of available resources in the San Francisco Bay Area • Excellent communication and written skills 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will learn about the various resources and agencies in the Bay Area • Students may work with a team of staff and volunteers or be assigned a core class or clients to work with independently. • Students put into practice communicating in a professional setting. • There is some opportunity for assessment. • Students may work under pressure to evaluate situations and make recommendations to mentees or patients. Spotlight on a Partner Alameda County Healthcare Foundation - Mentor students during a health training program and facilitate follow-up activities with curriculum
---	--

Project Manager

Job Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working as a point of contact • Communicating updates to executives • Working closely with different teams • Help to secure additional development resources if needed • Providing ad-hoc support to the Technology leadership team • The candidate needs strong analytical and problem solving skills and needs to have experience applying these skills to resolve potential issues • Strong communication skills • Ability to build strong work relationship with key stakeholders • Ability to function effectively in a fast paced environment and handle multiple tasks 	Service Learning Links <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students working with community partners have the opportunity to communicate with executives, work with different teams, and act as a point of contact between clients and the organization. • Students will be honing their communication skills with various groups while working with stakeholders • Students will often be working in fast paced environments while planning and multitasking on various projects • Students will be given projects to complete • Students will be applying classroom knowledge to real-life situations and problems so will need to use analytical skills
--	---

simultaneously <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to negotiate with key stakeholders • Ability to independently drive projects through to completion • Ability to plan and prioritize multiple tasks effectively • Ability to work both independently and as a team member 	Spotlight on a Partner BUILD Need college students to be team leaders for high school students developing a business idea, plan and presentation for a high school marketing competition.
---	---

Team Manager

Job Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing motivational leadership and day-to-day supervision of contact center employees. • Must meet specific operational goals while supporting teamwork and a culture of continuous improvement. • Support and model the company's ethics and core values; hold employees accountable to the same standards • Create a rewarding, motivating and engaging employee environment • Management leadership experience and preference given to managing in a teamwork environment • Effective performance requires critical thinking, decision making and problem solving in order to focus on our customer needs and successfully manage employees • Proven leadership, human relations and communication experience in providing direction, fostering open communications and building an organization • Demonstrated coaching skills; ability to build relationships and guide the development of operations team members • Ability to positively initiate, champion, prioritize and manage change in a fast paced performance driven environment 	Service Learning Links <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will gain leadership skills by motivating and supervising others in an enriching environment. • Students must work at teambuilding while meeting the goals and standards of the organization • Students will work with all areas of the community and build communication skills • Students will need to employ critical thinking and problem solving in day to day operations. • There are many opportunities to coach students and to build relationships in a fast paced environment Spotlight on a Partner Team-Up for Youth – engage youth in sports as coaches, plan and prepare curriculum, organize and lead practices and games, serve as mentors and role models
---	---

Web Designer for Game Company

Job Requirements - Must be able to work with a team of other creative people and be able to take constructive criticism – you must have a tough skin! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help build HTML e-mails, newsletters, and websites. 	Service Learning Links
--	--------------------------------------

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be creative and introduce new ideas and concepts to projects and perform other creative duties as assigned. • Be proactive in finishing and taking responsibility for projects. • Balance accuracy with speed; multi-task and meet deadlines. • Have solid grasp of design fundamentals and a hyper-attention to detail. • Work well with team members and remote resources. • Take direction well, and then execute independently. • Must possess excellent interpersonal skills, be able to work within tight deadlines and multi-task projects in an organized manner. • Must possess excellent project management and problem-solving skills. • Must be independent, self-directed and creative, and should enjoy working collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.
--	--

Software Engineer (Junior Level)
Job Requirements Continuously seek new ideas Passion for new ideas to make mobile social networking services more valuable Ability to work independently as a self-starter in rapid development cycle Customer-focused attitude while maintaining high engineering standards on scalability and robustness Understanding of cultural differences among US/Europe/Asia	Service Learning Links