

ATP Communication Groups

Fall Semester 2023

Book Club: Shoe Dog 	This semester's ATP Book Club is reading Phil Knight's book, Shoe Dog. This is an autobiography. Learn about Phil Knight's ups and downs of the shoe business and creating Nike. ATP will provide weekly summaries. You can read or listen to the book.
Headline News 	This group will feature some of the top news stories of the week. We will talk about hot topics--it's all fair game!
Peer Support Group 	We will pair new members with returning members to share and connect about living with aphasia. We will share resources and stories.
Reading & Writing Group 	All levels of writing are welcome. We will practice reading and writing skills with aphasia-friendly supports.
Art Group 	Let's talk about our love of art! Online and in-person groups will create art together!

A TED talk asks an expert in the field to share a topic. Scientists, authors, entertainers all take turns. There are TED Talks about aphasia! We will listen, discuss the key points, and talk about our opinions.

Aphasia Education & Research Group

Do you want to learn about stroke and aphasia research? Let's talk about current aphasia research and learn how to get involved.

Music Group

Let's talk about our love of music!
What kind of music do you like? Who is your favorite musician or band? Come and share!
Bring a musical instrument if you want!
This is NOT the Aphasia Tones Choir Rehearsal

Cooking Group

Let's share recipes and talk about our favorite meals!
We will also explore ways to make cooking easier after a stroke.
The in-person group will cook together!

The Aphasia Tones Choir rehearsals are on Wednesdays at 2:00/
Everyone is welcome. No prior choir experience is needed. We sing popular music. Our goal is having fun, meeting challenges, and building community. We also perform to raise awareness of aphasia. Come check out a rehearsal to see what it's like.