

Masters of Science in Special Education

Mild to Moderate Disabilities

Course Number	Course Name	Number of Units
6021	Thesis-Project Seminar (taken twice 6 units total)	3
6023	Research in Applied Behavioral Science	4
6124	Augmentative Communication and Assistive Technology	4
6127	Instructional and Behavioral Support	4
6129	Advanced Study in Collaborative Service Delivery, Education, and Transition	4
6131	Assessments: students with Mild to Moderate Disabilities	4
6134	Advanced Curriculum and Instruction: Mild to Moderate Disabilities	4
6141	Social Networks and Communication for Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) and other disabilities	4
6143	Positive Behavior Supports	4
6206	Advanced Studies in the Education of Students with Mild to Moderate Disabilities: Research and Professional Practice	4
6860	Advanced Field Work I (students must take 4 units)	4
or 6862	Advanced Field Work II (students must take 4 units)	4

All course work must be no older than 5 years at term of graduation. If courses work will exceed the 5 year limitation you must consult with your Program Advisor.

Only 13 non-residence units taken in undergraduate, "Unclassified Post-baccalaureate," "Classified Post-baccalaureate," and/or extension status can be applied to a degree program. (Transfer units are included in the 13 non-residence units which are permitted.) All units must be approved by the Program Coordinator prior to use.