Complaint/allegation of violation of University policy, Rule, or Regulations received by the Office of Student Conduct, Rights & Responsibilities (SCRR).

- Investigation
  - No evidence of violation
    - Matter closed
  - Evidence of violation
    - Meeting between Director SCRR and the student to discuss allegations
      - No further action
      - No Resolution
      - Resolution Sanction(s) accepted
        - Notice of Formal Hearing with recommended sanction(s) sent to student
          - Resolution prior to beginning of hearing
            - Sanctions include (but not limited to): Restitution, Loss of Financial Aid, Educational and Restorative Sanctions, No Contact Directive, Denial of Access to Campus, Disciplinary Probation, Suspension, Expulsion
          - Hearing conducted by Hearing Officer
            - Who makes sanction recommendation to University President.
              * President’s (designee) decision is final and not subject to appeal.

*The Hearing Officer is an impartial party appointed by the University. The Judicial Officer may not serve as Hearing Officer.
*More information about Student Conduct at CSUEB may be found at www.csueastbay.edu/studentconduct updated 4/1/17