California State University, East Bay – Student Judicial Affairs
Steps in Resolving Allegations of Student Misconduct pursuant to Executive Order 1073

Complaint/allegation of violation of University policy, Rule, or Regulations received by the Office of Student Development and Judicial Affairs.

Investigation

- No evidence of violation
  - Matter closed
    - No further action

- Evidence of violation
  - Meeting between Director OSDJA and the student to discuss allegations
    - No Resolution
      - Notice of Formal Hearing with recommended sanction(s) sent to student
        - Resolution prior to beginning of hearing
          - Sanctions include: Restitution, Loss of Financial Aid, Educational and Remedial Sanctions, Denial of Access to Campus, Disciplinary Probation, Suspension, Expulsion
        - Hearing conducted by Hearing Officer * Who makes sanction recommendation to University President.
          - President’s (designee) decision is final and not subject to appeal.

* The Hearing Officer is an impartial party appointed by the University. The Judicial Officer may not serve as Hearing Officer.

More information about Student Judicial Affairs at CSUEB may be found at http://www.csueastbay.edu/sdja