Online Campus
Cal State East Bay (CSUEB) is known as an early adopter and leader of online education among CSU campuses. According to a recent fall 2015 report presented by the Office of Institutional Research, nearly 20% of instruction is being delivered either through online or hybrid courses and more than 12% of instruction is being offered completely online. In addition, 6% of students are taking courses exclusively online, and nearly 54% of undergraduate students and 34% of graduate students are taking at least one online or hybrid course.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
CSUEB supports programs that foster social responsibility among our students and within the community. Through community engagement, students contribute to the public good by applying learning outside the classroom, and develop skills that prepare them to meet the challenges of the future. In the 2014-15 academic year, students contributed roughly 263,000 hours of service to the East Bay region. In the spring, 1,225 freshmen participated in the fourth annual Freshmen Day of Service, which amounted to 7,600 student hours. In addition, 4,775 hours of service were provided to 77 projects in 15 cities.
