What Living on Campus is All About.

Living On Campus Means:
You’ll be able to focus 100 percent on your studies while enjoying the close proximity to organized activities — and you won’t have to worry about things like food or transportation.

Residence Life Events helps students:
• Creating lifelong friends
• Experience cultures from all around the world
• Prepare for life after graduation

Residential Communities:
We offer dedicated support to our College First-Years (freshmen), Second-Years (sophomores) and Transfer students.

• First-Years: Let us help you transition into university life and ensure your success during the first year of college.
• Second-Years: We’ll continue supporting your educational journey, with emphasis on reaching the Third-Year mark.
• Transfer students: We’ll help you transition smoothly into the university, while focusing on life and success beyond graduation.

Dining Commons:
The Dining Commons is a unique all-you-care-to-eat dining facility within student housing that is open to the entire Cal State East Bay community.

You’ll enjoy:
• Fresh ingredients to create home-style meals
• Late-night dinners
• Finals week breakfast
• Holiday-themed meals and programs

Schedule a Tour:
