These two 201,000 square-foot buildings are actually identical, and are connected by multi-level bridges. Looking down from the sky, the two buildings make up the letter “H” to signify the university at one point was known as Cal State Hayward Hills. The College of Sciences Student Service Center can be found here. The CAVE 24/hr study room is located here. Also there is a picnic and BBQ area for use during student and staff events.

This concludes your self-guided tour, please feel free to explore Cal State East Bay further. We look forward to meeting you in the future!
2  Student Services & Administration (SA)

The SA building serves as a “one-stop-shop” for current students and is home to various offices such as the Enrollment Information Center (EIC), General Education Advising, the Cashier’s office, Financial Aid and Admissions. Academic Advising and Career Education (AACE) is located on the 2nd floor where students can get career advising. CSUEB’s President also calls this building home. Visit this building after you’ve applied for up-to-date information.

While facing the entrance of SA, turn to the left towards the white building also known as the Wayne and Gladys Valley Business and Technology Center (VBT).

3  Valley Business & Technology Center (VBT)

The Wayne and Gladys Valley Business and Technology Center built in part with help from Cal State East Bay Alumni. It features some of the most technologically advanced classrooms and presentation rooms on campus. It houses the College of Business and Economics Student Services Center which assists both current /undergraduate and post-graduate students. One of Cal State East Bay’s Assistive Technology labs is located in VBT. Feel free to walk through the building but keep your voices low as students are often studying on the bottom floor.

When facing the main entrance of VBT, walk around the left side of the building. Behind and to the left of VBT there are stairs framed by redwood trees. Follow the stairs down and turn right to enter the Arts and Education Courtyard.

16  Pioneer Heights Student Housing (PH)

Pioneer Heights is the university owned apartments and suites. The main office for Housing and Residential Life is called Lassen Hall (Check in at Lassen for more Housing information). We offer gender neutral individual housing for Sophomores and higher. The apartments are fully furnished including a kitchen, dining area, and living room. There are resident assistants (RA) assigned to live in each student building to ensure the safety of residents. Pioneer Heights also has a recreation room with a pool table, ping pong table, kitchen, and a television for student enjoyment. Outside the apartments are basketball courts and a picnic area for residents to relax and have fun. Contact Housing at (510) 885-7444.

Continue back across the street and on your right is the Recreation and Wellness Center (RAW).

17  Recreation & Wellness Center (RAW)

The Recreation and Wellness Center amenities include a multi-court gym, elevated indoor jogging track, fitness center, multipurpose rooms, and activity rooms for aerobics, martial arts, and dancing. This center also contains locker rooms and a Jamba Juice. Inside is a Wellness Center which offers programs and services to provide students with the holistic experience of recreation. The wellness component strives to integrate physical, psychological, emotional, and social aspects into a student’s health experience. These amenities are all free for current students to enjoy!

If you’re standing facing the RAW, make a left and continue up the hill to your next location, the Science Buildings. Don’t forget to look to your left at the top for an amazing view of the Bay!
14 Meiklejohn Hall (MI)

Meiklejohn Hall is a four-story building in which the College of Arts, Letters, and Social Sciences (CLASS) Student Service Center can be found. CLASS encompasses departments such as Communications, Anthropology, Liberal Studies, and Human Development. The Clarence E. Smith Museum of Anthropology has over 40,000 cultural objects open to the public. MI also houses the communication Lab where any student on campus, regardless of major, can receive free tutoring.

15 Dining Commons (DC)

The Dining Commons at Pioneer Heights offers meals during the week from morning to evening; including healthy foods and vegetarian selections. A variety of salads, hot foods, desserts and many other choices are available. A Chef’s special is also among the food options which give students an opportunity to try foods from different cultures. Students may select from a variety of meal plan options on campus. Freshmen who live on campus are required to purchase a meal plan as part of their housing contract. Meal plans are also available to any students living on or off campus. Meal Plans include a set number of meals per week plus flex cash to use at other food service options on campus.

Follow the sidewalk from the DC back to the crosswalk. The office building ahead is Lassen Hall, the office of Student Housing.

4 Arts and Education (AE)

The Arts and Education building was the first building on campus. Cal State East Bay was once known as a teacher’s college, and is still known for credential programs, where students aspiring to become teachers can receive their B.A. degree and Teaching Credential at the same time.

Cal State East Bay continues to produce 6% of California’s teachers annually. This building houses the Departments of Art and Digital Media, Teacher Education, and Teacher Credential. It also has photo developing labs, multimedia lab, and a ceramic metal and wood shop. Walk inside; this building always has fun art everywhere!

5 Pioneer Amphitheatre (PA)

The Amphitheatre is used for a variety of events on campus. In the past, it housed our Al Fresco welcome back Fall event for students. During the summer we host a jazz festival in the amphitheatre and a variety of other musical events during the year. It’s also a beautiful place to come and relax outside. Sometimes student study groups will meet here to soak up the sun while they study with our campus-wide wifi.

Theatre Building (TH)

The University Theatre seats approximately 500 people for various entertainment events held throughout the year. Many of these events are not only hosted by the Theatre Department; they are hosted by students and different clubs on campus. East Bay students do not have to study Theatre Arts to participate in plays, musicals, or cultural performances. They can simply audition for the parts. The building also includes a prop room, make-up room, classrooms, faculty offices and a studio theatre. The Theatre Department trains students in acting, dancing, directing and so much more!

If you’re facing the Theatre building, turn to the left and follow the path to the next building: Robinson Hall.

Robinson Hall (RO)

Robinson Hall is home to the Department of Anthropology, Geography & Environmental Studies, and the Theatre and Dance Department. The classrooms are located on the first floor and the offices are on the second. The building was named after Karl F. Robinson, a much beloved professor since 1935 who chaired the Speech Education Department at Cal State East Bay. Robinson Hall houses primarily classrooms and often students will have varied classes here, no matter their major.

Pioneer Bookstore (BK)

The Bookstore offers many services and makes campus life convenient for students and visitors. Full services such as textbook buyback, book rentals, ATM, copy services, laptop repair and iPod vending. One can also find gift certificates, electronics, software, East Bay apparel and gifts, school supplies, greeting cards, and general interest books here. The textbooks are on the second floor while goodies and other Cal State East Bay merchandise are on the first floor.

Continue walking down the pathway, away from the Library to your next stop.

University Unions (UU)

The University Unions are the heart of campus. The Original Union houses fast food options in addition to the P.O.D. Convenience Store, the Game Room, and a U.S. Bank. Located on the 3rd floor is Associated Students who represent Cal State East Bay students in Student Government. The New Union hosts more fast food options as well as various meeting rooms. It is also the home to Student Life and Leadership Programs. They are responsible for clubs and organizations, and student events on campus. The Diversity and Inclusion Student Center, committed to social justice awareness, is also located here.

10  Student Health Center (HC)

Student Health & Counseling Services provides quality health care by board-certified, licensed, and credentialed professional staff to Cal State East Bay students. No insurance needed! When students are feeling stressed or having some trouble with their significant other, they can attend single, couple, or group counseling for free. Services include medical appointments, personal counseling, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, immunizations, health education & more!

If you’re standing facing the Student Health Center, continue down the path on your left towards your next location: the Library.

8  Music Building (MB)

This donut-shaped building holds some of the College of Letters, Arts and Social Sciences, also known as CLASS. The Music department and the Department of Speech Pathology and Communicative Science & Disorders are located on the first floor. Faculty offices, lockers, and classrooms are found on the second floor. This building holds 8 sound-proof practice rooms, more than 40 pianos, and a recording studio for student use. Our bands and choirs tour different parts of Northern California and invite high schools to campus to preform or even compete.

When you are facing the MB, turn around and follow the path to the right. This will take you to the top of the PE building.

11  University Library (LI)

The Library has two levels. On the first level you will find the reference desk and the Learning Commons Computer Lab. This is also where students go to obtain a student I.D. (Bay Card). If there is a book that East Bay does not have in the library, you can search libraries from other CSUs and have it sent to you free of cost. You can also check out a laptop for up to two hours and take it anywhere within the library. The Student Center for Academic Achievement (SCAA) is located on the 2nd floor. Starbucks, a campus favorite, is also located in the library.

If you’re facing Starbucks, continue down that path on the left towards your next location, the Bookstore.

9  Physical Education (PE)

In this building, you can find the Student Service Center for the College of Education and Allied Studies such as Kinesiology and Recreation and Tourism. The Gymnasium includes a basketball court, two smaller multi-purpose rooms, and a weight room for classes or student use. The other room is used primarily for martial arts and yoga. There are also two dance studios, two heated swimming pools, and handball courts. East Bay competes with other colleges in the NCAA Division II.

After the Physical Education building continue down the walkway away from MB until you see stairs on your right, please follow those stairs down to your next location.
