6 Tips to Plan Your Welcome Day

1. Prioritize your day based on your needs. Reference the list of majors and campus map in your Welcome Day bag as resources.

2. To get the most from your day, have each family member/guest attend different presentations.

3. Presentations are first-come, first-served, so be prepared for presentation rooms to reach capacity early.

4. Visit the University Showcase to learn about the many resources available to future Pioneers and to meet Cal State East Bay staff and students.

5. Pick a tour that relates to you most. Campus tours, self-guided Housing tours, and Recreation and Wellness Center (RAW) tours will be available.

6. Attend the special events that apply to you, to get additional information and network at today’s presentations and special events and services.

Important Reminders

Check your Horizon e-mail often for University notices!
Your Cal State East Bay e-mail account is where University communications are sent regarding admission, classes, fees, financial aid, and instructions from professors. Access your e-mail with your NetID at horizon.csueastbay.edu. Horizon e-mail can be forwarded to a personal e-mail account.

Remember to check your MyCSUEB account!
MyCSUEB is Cal State East Bay’s self-service system for you to check your admission status and To Do lists, register for classes, and see your grades. Access MyCSUEB at my.csueastbay.edu with your NetID and password.

Is your personal information up-to-date in MyCSUEB?
It’s important that your e-mail and mailing addresses are accurate in order to receive university-related notices. Log into MyCSUEB and select “Student Center” to update your personal information.

Special Events and Services

C.E. SMITH MUSEUM OF ANTHROPOLOGY
10:35 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Meiklejohn Hall (MI) 4047

Two museum exhibits are currently showing in the C.E. Smith Museum of Anthropology: Latinx Synthesis: Natural and Supernatural Heritage and Adobe: Of Dirt & Community

From Peralta Hacienda Historical Park in Oakland to Bay Area spiritual practitioners, Latinx Synthesis provides refuge to folk saints unwelcome in the religious mainstream while offering a historical context to their Bay Area backdrop. Visitors are invited to commune with Latinx folk saints, experience East Bay history, and interact with technologies that transformed the area centuries ago.

In our new Museum of Mud, Adobe: Of Dirt & Community places a spotlight on the beauty and complexity of adobe houses, ovens, and other mud constructions and their cultural significance.
