Career Planning Roadmap

Transfers

Explore
- Get familiar with AACE website and services
- Research careers of interest with O*Net: onetonline.org/
- Target 20 employers of interest using Handshake or LinkedIn
- Schedule an appointment about career options or graduate school with AACE through Bay Advisor
- Create and/or update your resume
- Identify your career interests. Take the Strong Interest Inventory assessment through AACE

Consult
- Learn how and why to develop mentor(s)
- Fine tune your LinkedIn Profile and online network and get feedback from AACE
- Attend Career Fairs and Internship Week to learn about career tracks
- Hold a leadership position in a student club or organization to develop skills
- Use InterviewStream to practice interview skills
- Visit the Get Hired website for jobs/internships and more (csueastbay.edu/-gethired)

Network
- Visit the AACE website and services
- Research careers of interest with O*Net: onetonline.org/
- OOH: bls.gov/oomh/
- Target 20 employers of interest using Handshake or LinkedIn

Establish Yourself

Email: aace@csueastbay.edu

Website: www.csueastbay.edu/aace/

Office: Student Services & Administration (SA), Suite 2300