

POST-COVID OPPORTUNITY SCAN

The College of Business and Economics asked all the faculty and staff for their inputs and came up with the following top ten ideas for Post-COVID opportunities to retain and/or lessons learned.

1. Allowing faculty and staff to work remotely from home.
2. Continue and expand the use of e-documents and e-signatures for all required forms.
3. Offering more synchronous online or hybrid classes in the future (especially for evening classes).
4. Continue to have committee meetings using Zoom.
5. Having more virtual events, workshops, trainings, speakers, marketing activities, and etc.
6. Creating an online community for students to connect to organizations and other campus resources.
7. Increasing the quality of virtual teaching to accommodate a hybrid or online future.
8. Releasing official guidelines for students and instructors, regarding online class etiquette including lectures, exams, etc.
9. Providing free face masks and hand sanitizer on the campus.
10. Upgrading related hardware in our building such as ventilation.
