WHEREAS, Associated Students, Incorporated (ASI) of California State University, East Bay (CSUEB) is the recognized voice of approximately 15,000 students; and

WHEREAS, it is the mission of the ASI Board of Directors to advocate and provide responsible and effective leadership for a diverse student population in order to make sound decisions for the betterment of CSUEB students; and

WHEREAS, CSUEB’s Shared Strategic Commitments includes being dedicated to “enhance our inclusive campus, responding to the backgrounds and interests of our diverse community and promoting their academic, professional and personal development;”

WHEREAS, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders make up roughly 23% of California State University, East Bay undergraduate students, making this demographic the second largest population;

WHEREAS, “The Bay Area is home to around 500,000 Filipinos, according to the 2017 American Community Survey, which represents 12% of the entire 4 million Filipinos in the United States,” making up many of the friends and family who support our East Bay community and have ties back in the Philippines, and

WHEREAS, students are still concerned with the violence associated with the Philippine government’s drug war and recognize the inhumane treatment and injustices driven by the Philippine government’s War on Drugs, De Facto Martial Law, and Anti-Terrorism Act, resulting in over 27,000 deaths thus far, and

---

WHEREAS, the Philippine Human Rights Act (PHRA) strives: “to suspend United States security assistance with the Philippines until such time as human rights violations by Philippine security forces cease and the responsible state forces are held accountable;” ⁴ and

WHEREAS, in 2016, “the U.S. helped inaugurate Duterte’s drug war by giving $32 million to the Philippine police (supposedly for “training and services” in “policing standards” and “rule of law,” besides equipment). In July 2018, the United States announced an additional $26.5 million in U.S. tax dollars to beef up support for Philippine police, in the name of “counter-terrorism;” ⁵ and

WHEREAS, the Anti-Terror Bill allows the Philippine government absolute power to define terrorism and carry out warrantless arrests of suspected terrorists including US travelers and visitors, and

WHEREAS, this issue continues to directly impact our students because US taxpayer funds are bankrolling a growing human rights issue when they could be redirected to supporting our education system, institutional support, healthcare and other social services in the US; and

WHEREAS, ASI passed Resolution in Support of the Philippine Human Rights Act,⁶ be it therefore

RESOLVED, this resolution supersedes the previous version (ATTACHMENT I); and let it be further

RESOLVED, California State University, East Bay’s Associated Students Incorporated fully endorses the Philippine Human Rights Act and will lobby with elected officials to show support of, as well as collaborating with AAPI organizations to create resources and spread awareness for the campaign; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI allows the usage of its logo on the campaign website, and any other outlets affiliated with supporting the Philippine Human Rights Act; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI condemns the unjust actions fueled by the Philippine War on Drugs, De Facto Martial Law, and Anti-Terrorism Act; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI condemns the decision to send US Taxpayer money to the Philippine military and police; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI embraces diversity and fair human rights for all individuals, and continue to compile resources for the Filipinx-American community to publicly support the Philippine Human Rights Act; and let it be finally

RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be distributed to the President Joe Biden, Vice President Kamala Harris, Governor Gavin Newsom, Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi, Senator Dianne Feinstein, Senator Alex Padilla, Senator Bob Hertzberg, Congressman Brad Hertzberg, Congressman Eric Swalwell, all local representatives in the East Bay Area, the CSU Board of Trustees, the CSU Chancellor, our University President, the Vice President for Student Affairs, Coordinator of Diversity, Diversity and Inclusion Center, Executive Director for International Programs, President of each CSU Student Government, Vice President of Legislative Affairs of the California State Student Association, President of the California State Student Association, President of University of California Student Association, the Pioneer, digitally to all students, and any other relevant parties.

Authored by: Anjelica de Leon, President/CEO
Kabir Dhillon, Executive Vice President/Chief of Staff
Daisy Maxion, Alumni & 2019-2020 President/CEO

Approved On: Wednesday, July 21, 2021

ASI President/CEO does hereby [ ] approves / [ ] refuses to approve this resolution.

Anjelica de Leon
ASI President/CEO

Kabir Dhillon
ASI Executive Vice President/Chief of Staff

Daisy Maxion
Alumni

Approved by: ASI Board of Directors 2021-2022
ATTACHMENT 1
CSU EAST BAY, ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC. (ASI)
Resolution in Support of the Philippine Human Rights Act

WHEREAS, Associated Students, Incorporated (ASI) of California State University, East Bay (CSUEB) is the recognized voice of approximately 16,000 students; and

WHEREAS, it is the mission of the ASI Board of Directors to advocate and provide responsible and effective leadership for a diverse student population in order to make sound decisions for the betterment of CSUEB students; and

WHEREAS, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders make up roughly 23% of California State University, East Bay undergraduate students, making this demographic the second largest population; 1 and

WHEREAS, “The Bay Area is home to around 500,000 Filipinos, according to the 2017 American Community Survey, which represents 12% of the entire 4 million Filipinos in the United States,” 2 making up many of the friends and family who support our East Bay community and have ties back in the Philippines, and

WHEREAS, students are becoming increasingly concerned with the violence associated with the Philippine government’s drug war and recognize the inhumane treatment and injustices driven by the Philippine government’s War on Drugs, De Facto Martial Law, and Anti-Terrorism Act, resulting in over 27,000 deaths thus far, and

WHEREAS, the Philippine Human Rights Act (PHRA) strives: “to suspend United States security assistance with the Philippines until such time as human rights violations by Philippine security forces cease and the responsible state forces are held accountable;” 3 and

1 California State University, East Bay. Facts Retrieved from: https://www.csueastbay.edu/about/1000.html
WHEREAS, in 2016, "the U.S. helped inaugurate Duterte’s drug war by giving $32 million to the Philippine police (supposedly for “training and services” in “policing standards” and “rule of law,” besides equipment). In July 2018, the United States announced an additional $26.5 million in U.S. tax dollars to beef up support for Philippine police, in the name of “counter-terrorism."" and

WHEREAS, the Anti-Terror Bill allows the Philippine government absolute power to define terrorism and carry out warrantless arrests of suspected terrorists including US travelers and visitors, and

WHEREAS, this issue directly impacts our students because US taxpayer funds are bankrolling a growing human rights issue when they could be redirected to supporting our education system, institutional support, healthcare and other social services in the US; be it therefore

RESOLVED, California State University, East Bay’s Associated Students Incorporated fully endorses the Philippine Human Rights Act and will lobby with elected officials to show support of, as well as collaborating with AAPI organizations to create resources and spread awareness for the campaign; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI allows the usage of its logo on the campaign website, and any other outlets affiliated with supporting the Philippine Human Rights Act; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI condemns the unjust actions fueled by the Philippine War on Drugs, De Facto Martial Law, and Anti-Terrorism Act; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI condemns the decision to send US Taxpayer money to the Philippine military and police; and let it be further

RESOLVED, CSUEB ASI embraces diversity and fair human rights for all individuals, and continue to compile resources for the Filipino-American community to publicly support the Philippine Human Rights Act; and let it be finally

RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be distributed to the Governor Gavin Newsom, Senator Bob Hertzberg, Congressman Brad Hertzberg, Congressman Eric Swalwell, the CSU Board of Trustees, Office of the CSU Chancellor, Office of the President, Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Office of Diversity, Diversity and Inclusion Center, Office of International Students, California State Student Association, University of California Student Association, digitally to all students, and any other relevant parties.

Author by: Anjelica de Leon, Vice President of University Affairs
Brittney Golez, Vice President of Communications
Daisy Maxion, Alumni

Approved on: Wednesday, August 26, 2020
ASI President/CEO does hereby [ ] approves / [ ] refuses to approve this resolution.

Anjelica de Leon
ASI Vice President of University Affairs

Brittney Golez
ASI Vice President of Communications

Approved by: ASI Board of Directors 2020-2021