

Career Planning Roadmap

Transfers

Explore

Get familiar with AACE website and services

Research careers of interest with O*Net: onetonline.org/
OOH: bls.gov/ooh/

Target 20 employers of interest using Handshake or LinkedIn

Consult

Schedule an appointment about career options or graduate school with AACE through Bay Advisor

Create and/or update your resume

Identify your career interests. Take the Strong Interest Inventory assessment through AACE

Network

Learn how and why to develop mentor(s)

Fine tune your LinkedIn Profile and online network and get feedback from AACE

Attend Career Fairs and Internship Week to learn about career tracks

Establish Yourself

Hold a leadership position in a student club or organization to develop skills

Use InterviewStream to practice interview skills

Visit the Get Hired website for jobs/internships and more (csueastbay.edu/gethired)

Email: aace@csueastbay.edu

Website: www.csueastbay.edu/aace/

Office: Student Services & Administration (SA), Suite 2300