CSUEB Hosts Financial Aid Roundtable

By Meng Zhang

Financial literacy is considered to be one of the few and most important lessons to learn for all, both in school settings and in professional life.

On Tuesday, March 23, Cal State East Bay’s Winter Quarter Leadership Institute provided a dynamic workshop on “Financial Literacy and Leadership” for the purpose of teaching students about financial responsibility.

The entertaining and relaxed speaker, Diane Finch, brought Ellington to fame. With her funny and lively performance, “Sophisticated Ladies” continues to show how to make money in a better way and make smart decisions.

Museum Displays Chinese Artifacts

By Denise Smith

Cal State East Bay’s O. C. Smith Museum of Anthropology hosted an opening reception to unveil its new exhibit, “Forgotten Contributions of the Bay Area Chinese,” which focuses on the winning and losing conditions of the Chinese Americans who constructed the Bay Bridge and its towers.

The exhibit features diorama of the camp, quilts of the eruption zone, as well as original artifacts including tools, clothing, letters, and coins. It also offers visitors the opportunity to pay for the bay towers’ grace, which was paid by the workers with came and graduated from the University of California, Berkeley.

Olivia Alcock’s workshop class and the costume stitchers and volunteers from the California Historical Society made a vital contribution to the exhibit.

A visually pleasing and fun-packed experience with some great performances, said junior Pinnella.

CSUEB Summer Institute Begins July 22

The museum is free to all visitors Monday-Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday-Sunday from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.
