Cultural Identity & Healing Practices
Tuesday, November 7
3:30 PM - 4:30 PM (DISC - UU 1005)

All minoritized communities have developed ways to sustain themselves in the midst of hardship, and to heal one another. In this creative arts workshop, we will reflect on our ancestor's strengths and resources, and identify the tools that we can be using now and passing on to future generations.

Being Children of Immigrants, Migrants & Natives
Wednesday, November 29
3:30 PM - 4:30 PM (DISC - UU 1005)

In this creative arts workshop we will reflect on how cultural roots that start in the home, evolve outside of the home. How much do we allow society to view? We will reflect on challenges such as mental health stigma and generational trauma, and learn alternative ways to help us maintain balance and resilience to continue to move forward.
